Our story...

When you march to the rhythm of your own drum,
you have to do things a bit off the beaten path.

Surrounded by the rolling hills of the Palouse and situated in the center of the most charming town in Eastern Washington, Hotel McCoy stands tall. We offer the warm hospitality of a cozy lodge and the modern amenities of a cosmopolitan art hotel. More than a place to stay, we invite you to roast a marshmallow on our moon deck, wonder at the 30-foot murals, and peruse the Widewa Wine Collective (that's wid-eh-wah), our in-house wine shop that offers a full portfolio of this region's wine (and craft beers).

Pullman is a breath of fresh air, figuratively and literally, and we invite you to let yourself enjoy a slice of our pace of life while you're here. Once you check-in, you're within walking distance of some of the best eateries, iconic coffee shops, and boutique shopping in the state of Washington. Headed to WSU? We're exactly 257 paces away. Welcome to our little piece of Pullman Paradise. We are so glad to have you here!

Mother Earth

Environmentally friendly. It’s not an option, it’s a priority, which is why we designed this solar-powered hotel to LEED standards. Our walls are covered with no-VOC paint, our rooms are lit with LEDs, and we use biodegradable and recyclable products whenever possible.

HOTEL MCCOY IS NAMED AFTER A LITTLE KNOWN MOUNTAIN RANGE

Built in 1954, this hotel has hosted many Cougs and non-Cougs alike. If you're here for a football game, people have been doing the same since 1894 when the first varsity game was played at what is now WSU.

WSU Fun Facts

Pullman is home to Washington State University and we've got spirit, yes we do, and we'll share it with you. Here are some fun facts about WSU. Between 1927 and 1978, there was a real live cougar on the sidelines of WSU games. These days, it is a human in a costume (sorry if we ruined the magic for you). WSU has had two name changes. It was Washington State Agricultural College and School of Sciences and State College of Washington before it became Washington State University in 1959.

ART

Every piece of art you see,
from the murals to the in-room paintings,

WAS CREATED BY A LOCAL REGIONAL ARTIST

Art is a powerful language. It can make us feel, unlock emotions, and connect us to places and moments in time that have long passed. Through mural covered walls, the wondrous lobby art gallery, scattered exhibits, and the brilliant works of art in your room, you are experiencing the heartbeat of this little city. Art is more than a feature, it is the very foundation of Hotel McCoy.

MURALS

Hotel McCoy Pullman is home to many murals and more to come, each one painted by a muralist who calls the region their home or has stayed with us through our Artist Residency program. These works of art cover our exterior and some of our guest rooms. We love to see our walls through your eyes. If you post, be sure to tag @hotelmccoy and the artist.

ART PROGRAM

If a work of art comes off the wall, it's for sale. Hotel McCoy is a living art gallery, your room and the lobby function as exhibit space. Unlike traditional art galleries, our program is commission-free. The local artist who brought the piece to life sets the price and retains 100% of the proceeds.

ARTIST RESIDENCY

Not all who wander are lost. In fact, many of them are artists looking to stopover in Pullman for a bit. If you would like to apply for an Artist Residency, please reach out to nicole@hotelmccoy.com. Ranging from one to four weeks, we have hosted muralists, writers, musicians, painters, and poets through this unique program.

WSU Bear Center
2.5 MILES FROM HOTEL MCCOY

Ask any Pullman Native and they'll tell you, you've got to see the bears! These cuties may not be the cuddliest teddies but they are magnificent. This research, education and conservation center is one of a kind.

Rico's Public House

0.2 MILES FROM HOTEL MCCOY

ricospub1909.com

Located in the heart of historic downtown, stop by Rico's and you can enjoy Reuben and relax at your own pace. In addition to a full food and drink menu, Rico's has board games, arcade games, and books, as well as three maintained coin-operated pool tables.

Roost Coffee & Market

128 FEET FROM HOTEL MCCOY

roostcoffeepullman.com

Look outside! You just might be able to see this little gem from your window. Roost is a small coffee shop, bakery and cafe. We love everything on the menu but the caramel lavender latte takes the crown.

Tokyo Seoul

0.4 MILES FROM HOTEL MCCOY

tokyoseoul.menu11.com

Outstanding sushi and Korean food, Tokyo Seoul is an extremely authentic dining experience. It's one of those jewels of the town that Pullmanites (we made that word up) love to share with others, and you can count us in.

Lumberyard

0.4 MILES FROM HOTEL MCCOY

Can't decide what's for dinner? Then the Lumberyard is the place for you! Enjoy tastes from many a place here. Lunch and dinner options range from Hawaiian and Burgers to Greek and Poke. Plus expert bartenders serving all your favorite cocktails. What's not to love?
