THOUGHTS FROM FR. EMMANUEL

Friends, in today's Gospel, Peter's reaction is deeply human. He loves Jesus and wants to protect Him. But love without the perspective of God can become a stumbling block. Jeremiah felt this tension too. He was called to speak God's truth, but it brought him ridicule and suffering. He even tried to hold it in, but God's word was like a fire in his heart — impossible to contain.

Paul urges us in Romans to "offer your bodies as a living sacrifice" and to be "transformed by the renewal of your mind." That means learning to see life through God's lens, not just our own comfort or preferences.

Jesus' words in Matthew are not just about His own mission — they are about ours: "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me." The cross is not simply a burden or inconvenience; it is the place where love is tested and proven. In God's economy, losing your life for His sake is the way to truly find it. This is the paradox: the path to glory runs through sacrifice, not around it.

We live in a culture that often says, "Avoid pain. Seek comfort. Put yourself first." But Jesus calls us to something radically different: In relationships: Choosing forgiveness over resentment, even when it costs us pride. In service: Giving time and energy to those in need, even when it's inconvenient. In faith: Standing for truth and justice, even when it's unpopular.

Every act of self-denial for the sake of love is a small participation in the cross — and a step toward resurrection. May we all people of St Regis carry with love every cross in our lives and even help others to do so, that following the example of Jesus, we may understand deeply that the only way to Glory, is the Cross.

I am excited to announce that the theme for this 2026-2027 Academic/fiscal year for the Academy and our Church is: "Be His Heart in the World" This is a great invitation for all of us to bring the love of the Sacred Heart of Jesus into action in our lives.

In the Sacred Heart of Jesus,

Fr. Emmanuel Lopez

REFLEXIONES DEL PADRE EMMANUEL

Amigos, en el Evangelio de hoy, la reacción de Pedro es profundamente humana. Ama a Jesús y quiere protegerle. Pero el amor sin la perspectiva de Dios puede convertirse en un obstáculo. Jeremías también sintió esta tensión. Fue llamado a hablar de la verdad de Dios, pero eso le trajo burla y sufrimiento. Incluso intentó contenerla, pero la palabra de Dios era como un fuego en su corazón — imposible de contener.

Pablo nos insta en Romanos a "ofrecer vuestros cuerpos como sacrificio viviente" y a ser "transformados por la renovación de vuestra mente." Eso significa aprender a ver la vida a través del lente de Dios, no solo a nuestro propio consuelo o preferencias.

Las palabras de Jesús en Mateo no se refieren solo a Su propia misión — se refieren a la nuestra: "Quien quiera venir después de mí, debe negarse a sí mismo, tomar su cruz y seguirme." La cruz no es simplemente una carga o una molestia; es el lugar donde se pone a prueba y prueba el amor. En la economía de Dios, perder la vida por Él es la forma de encontrarla verdaderamente. Esta es la paradoja: el camino hacia la gloria pasa por el sacrificio, no alrededor de él.

Vivimos en una cultura que a menudo dice: "Evita el dolor. Busca consuelo. Ponte a ti primero." Pero Jesús nos llama a algo radicalmente diferente: en las relaciones: elegir el perdón en lugar del resentimiento, incluso cuando nos cueste orgullo. En servicio: Dar tiempo y energía a quienes lo necesitan, incluso cuando es incómodo. En la fe: Defender la verdad y la justicia, incluso cuando no es popular.

Cada acto de negación por amor es una pequeña participación en la cruz — y un paso hacia la resurrección. Que todos los habitantes de San Régis llevemos con amor cada cruz en nuestras vidas e incluso ayudemos a otros a hacerlo, para que, siguiendo el ejemplo de Jesús, entendamos profundamente que el único camino a la Gloria es la Cruz.

Me complace anunciar que el tema de este año académico/fiscal 2026-2027 para la Academia y nuestra Iglesia es: "Sé Su Corazón en el Mundo". Esta es una gran invitación para que todos llevemos el amor del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús a la acción en nuestras vidas.

En el Sagrado Corazón de Jesús,
P. Emmanuel López

En unos nueve meses, las Ladies organizarán un baby shower para recoger artículos donados para varios grupos locales que ayudan a los bebés y a sus madres.
