THOUGHTS FROM FR. EMMANUEL

Friends, the 23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time, brings together readings that speak to how we live in relationship with God and with one another. The first reading from Ezekiel calls the prophet a watchman — responsible to warn the people of moral danger. If he fails to speak up, he shares in the guilt; if he warns and they refuse, he is saved. This is a call to courageous truth-telling and to the moral responsibility that comes with belonging to God's people.

The second reading from Romans reminds us that love fulfills the law. Love is not passive; it is active, constructive, and the very heart of God's commandments. St. Paul teaches that love never harms, but instead brings peace, unity, and reconciliation.

In the Gospel, Jesus gives a practical guide to fraternal correction. When someone sins, the first step is a private, loving conversation. If that fails, involve others, and ultimately the Church. Jesus emphasizes that where two or three gather in His name, He is present — and that His presence is the power that transforms conflict into unity.

We are our brother's and sister's keepers — not just in private charity, but in the duty to correct, forgive, and seek reconciliation. Love guides correction — it is not about judgment for its own sake, but about the good of the other person. Remember that community prayer and unity — Jesus' presence in the gathered community is the source of healing and transformation.

So, here it is a Practical challenge: Speak truth with kindness when someone is going the wrong way. Pray for those who are difficult to love. Gather in Christ's name and let your community be a place where His presence is made real.

Join us in celebrating the 60th anniversary of our Academy, forming scholars according to the Heart of Jesus and the wisdom of the Holy Spirit. A Thanking mass for the academy will be offered on Sunday September 13th at 10:30 am. Keep in your prayers our scholars, teachers and, our principal: and if you want to, please show your appreciation to our Academy-staff by dropping or sending a Thank-you-note to them. Thank you for your support and love to Saint Regis Academy.

In the Sacred Heart of Jesus,

Fr. Emmanuel Lopez

WALKING IN FAITH: EUCHARISTIC PROCESSION AT ST. REGIS ACADEMY

On Wednesday, August 27, St. Regis Academy was blessed to have Father Lopez lead our school community in a Eucharistic Procession around the Academy grounds. With the Blessed Sacrament at the center, we gathered in prayer and entrusted our school community to the Lord.

During the procession, we prayed for our scholars, past and present; our teachers and staff; our parish community; and our families. As Father Lopez carried the Eucharist around the Academy, he blessed our Academy and all who enter its doors.

It was a beautiful reminder that Christ is truly at the heart of St. Regis Academy. We are grateful for this opportunity to begin our school year by placing our scholars, our teachers, our families, and our entire Academy under the loving presence and protection of Jesus.

REFLEXIONES DEL PADRE EMMANUEL

Amigos, el 23° Domingo en Tiempo Ordinario, reúne lecturas que hablan de cómo vivimos en relación con Dios y entre nosotros. La primera lectura de Ezequiel llama al profeta un vigilante — responsable de advertir al pueblo del peligro moral. Si no alza la voz, comparte la culpa; si advierte y ellos se niegan, se salva. Este es un llamado a la verdad valiente y a la responsabilidad moral que conlleva pertenecer al pueblo de Dios.

La segunda lectura de Romanos nos recuerda que el amor cumple la ley. El amor no es pasivo; es activo, constructivo y el corazón mismo de los mandamientos de Dios. San Pablo enseña que el amor nunca daña, sino que trae paz, unidad y reconciliación.

En el Evangelio, Jesús ofrece una guía práctica para la corrección fraternal. Cuando alguien peca, el primer paso es una conversación privada y amorosa. Si eso falla, involucra a otros y, en última instancia, a la Iglesia. Jesús enfatiza que donde dos o tres se reúnen en Su nombre, Él está presente — y que Su presencia es el poder que transforma el conflicto en unidad.

Somos los guardianes de nuestros hermanos y hermanas — no solo en caridad privada, sino en el deber de corregir, perdonar y buscar la reconciliación. El amor guía a la corrección — no se trata de juzgar por sí mismo, sino del bien de la otra persona. Recuerda que la oración comunitaria y la unidad — la presencia de Jesús en la comunidad reunida es la fuente de sanación y transformación.

Así que aquí va un reto práctico: Habla la verdad con bondad cuando alguien va en el camino equivocado. Ora por aquellos a quienes son difíciles de amar.

Reúneos en el nombre de Cristo y dejad que vuestra comunidad sea un lugar donde Su presencia se haga real.

Únete a nosotros para celebrar el 60° aniversario de nuestra Academia, formando eruditos según el Corazón de Jesús y la sabiduría del Espíritu Santo. Se celebrará una misa de agradecimiento por la academia el domingo 13 de septiembre a las 10:30 de la mañana. Guardad en vuestras oraciones a nuestros alumnos, profesores y nuestro director: y si queréis, por favor mostrad su agradecimiento a nuestro personal de la Academia enviándoles o enviando una nota de agradecimiento.

Gracias por vuestro apoyo y cariño a Saint Regis Academy.

En el Sagrado Corazón de Jesús,
P. Emmanuel López

En unos nueve meses, las Ladies organizarán un baby shower para recoger artículos donados para varios grupos locales que ayudan a los bebés y a sus madres.
