

Maternity Home

Account Name	Description	Phone	Website	Shipping City
Veronica's Home of Mercy	Two long-term Catholic/Christian homes provide a safe, supportive place for pregnant women and their young children as a healthy alternative to abortion, domestic violence, substance abuse, or homelessness. Veronica's Home of Mercy offers counseling, childcare, life skills, and 24-hour supervision, along with programs for mental health, parenting, and education. Space is limited and entry requires an interview. Restrictions apply.	909.889.2558	https://www.marysmantle.org/ministries/veronicas-home-of-mercy/
Sarah's House Maternity Homes	A full program home for pregnant women 18 and older. Our program is designed to promote a sense of responsibility in the women we serve. Sarah's House offers professional counseling, case management, mentoring, infant care and life skills training including nutrition, financial management, self esteem, parenting and adoption support, gardening and cooking. Residents attend school and/or work while living at Sarah's House. Location is confidential to ensure the safety of our residents.	(805) 581 1910	https://www.sarahshousesi.org/
New Life Beginnings	Long-term shelter care for pregnant women and their children (no age or number limits, space permitting). Services include job training, career planning, parenting and child development education, health and nutrition, substance abuse and child abuse prevention, domestic violence support, and medical, legal, and adoption referrals. Emergency 24-hour shelter is also available for women, pregnant or not, with or without children.	(562) 590-1538	https://www.newlb.org/

Maternity Home

His Nesting Place	Supports pregnant women (18+) with minor children, focusing on restoration, personal growth, and education. Offers parenting classes, budgeting, practical support, medical referrals, and pregnancy help?all in a caring, family-like environment. No referral needed. Visit website for requirements and intake.	(562) 422-2137	https://www.hisnestingplace.org/programs	Long Beach
Harvest Home	Harvest Home is a nonprofit in Los Angeles dedicated to transforming the lives of homeless pregnant women and their babies. They provide safe transitional housing and a structured supportive community offering case management, therapy, parenting education, financial and emotional wellness classes, and spiritual growth opportunities. With two homes serving up to around 70 women annually, their mission is to equip mothers to break the cycle of homelessness and build stability for themselves and their children	(310) 452-1223	https://www.harvesthomela.org/apply	Santa Monica
Elizabeth House	We provide a supportive, home-like residential program for 12-15 pregnant women each year and their children under 5. Residents stay through pregnancy and up to four months postpartum, receiving comprehensive care including case management, counseling, healthcare access, parenting education, job training, mentoring, scholarships, and baby supplies. Eligibility: Pregnant women 18+ who may be homeless, low-income, survivors of abuse, emancipated foster youth, or facing crisis pregnancy. A $25 entry fee and monthly contributions to a transitional fund are required.	626-577-4434	https://www.elizabethhouse.net/	Pasadena

Maternity Home

Casa Teresa	Casa Teresa is a shelter for pregnant women in crisis, providing basic needs, case management, classes, and supportive services. There are five residential programs, ranging from support for women choosing adoption, to emergency housing and help for pregnant women struggling with chronic homelessness, substance abuse, and other issues, to longer stays helping mothers gradually prepare to re-enter society as a self-reliant member able to maintain a safe, loving life for herself and her child(ren). TO QUALIFY: Must be 18 or older and no more than seven months along in pregnancy. Monetary requirements vary, as applicable to each program.	(714) 538-4860	https://casateresa.org/
Casa De Los Angelitos (Home of the Little Angels)	A safe, secure residence for pregnant women age 18 and over, including a program of acquiring the knowledge and skills necessary for parenting and independent living, in an atmosphere of Christian love where residents can grow in dignity, love, and concern for one another. INTAKE PROCESS: call for an appointment to come in & fill out an application. Bring with you current (not over 6 months old) record of STD test, TB test and drug test. $200/month for facility, computer programs and counseling. Also work with CalWorks. No other children. May stay throughout pregnancy and up to 3 months after birth.	(310)325-8208	http://www.palosverdes.com/casa/	Harbor City

Maternity Home

Precious Life Shelter	Precious Life offers safe, transitional housing for pregnant women 18+ with no place to live. Women can enter at any stage of pregnancy and must provide ID and proof of pregnancy. The program requires a drug-free commitment and helps with prenatal care by assisting with Medi-Cal enrollment. Services include up to 30 nights lodging, baby essentials, counseling, case management, birth coaching, transportation help, and access to a licensed Infant Care Center for those working or in school. Immediate health screenings are required during the short-term emergency stay	562-431-5025	https://www.preciouslifesheiter.org/	Los Alamitos
Angels Way	Angels Way offers expectant mothers crisis pregnancy support grounded in Christian values, empowering them through services that nurture physical, psychological, educational, and spiritual health. They provide essentials like diapers, wipes, clothing, household items, and postpartum care; assist in finding appropriate housing; host educational workshops; and foster community through meet-ups with other parents. Their goal is to build self-worth and equip parents to become confident, responsible caregivers for their children.	(818) 346-2229	https://www.angelswayhome.org/	Los Angeles