Let's go all in for hope and all out for Houston.

ABOUT ALLIES IN HOPE

Allies in Hope, formerly AIDS Foundation Houston, is the first AIDS Service Organization in Texas and has remained a community leader in HIV/STI testing, programming, and care for more than 40 years.

With a vision of creating a community where HIV is stigma-free, new incidents are rare, and people have equitable access to care, Allies in Hope works towards the mission of ending the HIV epidemic in the greater Houston area.

Allies in Hope services include prevention, education, PrEP care, nPEP, HIV testing and Rapid Start Treatment, STI Testing and Treatment, outreach in Texas prisons, supportive housing, food assistance, a summer camp for children, and supportive services to all persons affected by or at risk for HIV.

Allies in Hope has added an additional facility located in Midtown Houston at 2328 Fannin Street. This state-of-the-art facility opened its doors in June 2023 and now serves as the primary location for services and programs.
