Weekly Memory Verse: "The Lord is my strength and my song and He has become my salvation..." Ex 15:2a

How is the journey of formation in the now lost in our idea of salvation as a passport to heaven?

How do we see our current journey of becoming like Jesus displayed in the context of Israel's journey through the desert?

Is your view of the worship service different when you think about singing, prayer, and scripture as the heart's natural response to seeing and knowing (yada) God?

How is "God gives us strength" and "God is our strength" different? How does it play out when we are walking in desert places?

The people started in Egypt with a cry (ze'aqua) of anguish, but now they have a cry of praise. Do your cries to Jesus lead you to cries of praise when He answers or leads you through?

In verse 13 we see God leading His people. How aware are you of God's leadership every day?

Read Isaiah 42:10 and Rev 5. How can we sing a new song today?
