Deuteronomy 8

Weekly Memory Verse: ““But you shall remember the Lord your God, for it is He who is giving you power to make wealth, that He may confirm His covenant which He swore to your fathers, as it is this day.” Deut. 8:18

How is it a different experience to be “led through” the desert instead of “wandering in” the desert?

How can you look back to see God's hand in your deserts? How does this help you in your current or future desert experience?

When we think of being humbled (v.3) and disciplined (v.5) how are these both difficult and necessary lessons for life?

Moses looks back over 40 years of God's faithfulness and teaching in the desert to prepare the people for facing their greatest test: prosperity. How is prosperity our greatest test?

Think about the rhythms of the weekly, monthly, and yearly observances of Israel. How were these rhythms designed to protect the people from the dangers of prosperity?

What rhythms do you and your family observe to protect you from those same dangers?
