What excuses do you make for not following through on God's calling to be a partner in Shalom? What circumstances make you most fearful in stepping into that role?

What promises of God help you to deal with your fear and inadequacy when you follow that calling?

Have you ever outright resisted God when you felt Him calling you to step out of your comfort zone and serve as an agent of shalom?

God calls us to walk back into the darkness from which we were rescued to rescue others. What dangers await us in the darkness of our Egypt? What protection do we need?

Moses is confronted in a very powerful way as he lodged on the way to Egypt. Why does God deal so harshly with covenant unfaithfulness when we are headed back to Egypt?

How do you see God taking the formation of Moses into a new level when He introduces Moses back into covenant community? What help and what struggles are there in this community?
