OUR MISSION STATEMENT

To honor the Lord as Servants of Christ and Stewards of the mysteries of God by spreading his message of Love, Hope, Faith and Respect. In trusting his message, our diverse community will always remain united and be guided by the Holy Spirit, to encourage and support the development of the Sacramental Life and by being a community open to others that are coming in search of Christ's love and teachings.

GOSPEL REFLECTION

Today, standing at the threshold of a new year, the Church invites us to gaze on a star, one that does not merely decorate the heavens but directs all nations toward their true destiny. The Feast of the Epiphany is the celebration of God revealing Himself, not secretly to a chosen few, but openly, boldly, lovingly, to the whole world.

Epiphany means "manifestation." It is the moment when Christ's identity is made known, not only to Israel, but to "the nations," to all peoples, symbolized by the mysterious and majestic figures we call the Magi.

The Magi represent all humanity: seekers, thinkers, wanderers, the spiritually curious, and the spiritually restless. They were not Jewish. They did not know the prophecies. Their homeland was far from Bethlehem. And yet God reached into their world using a language they could understand: a star.

God still does this today. To the scientist, He speaks through the order and beauty of creation. To the artist, through beauty and imagination. To the suffering, through solidarity and compassion. To the spiritually thirsty, through restlessness of the heart.

Their journey was not glamorous. It was long, unpredictable, and dangerous. Yet they kept moving. They did not settle for "almost." They did not stop halfway. They did not return to comfort when the path grew dark.

This is the first lesson of the Epiphany: Faith requires movement. You cannot find Christ if you are not willing to leave something behind comfort, pride, sin, habit, fear.

A striking detail in Matthew's Gospel is that the star leads the Magi to Jerusalem... and then stops. It disappears. They have to ask for help. They go to Herod and the scribes. This teaches us a profound truth: Sometimes God guides us through signs, and sometimes through people.

Sometimes God leads through clarity; sometimes through obedience. Sometimes through consolation; sometimes through uncertainty that forces us to seek guidance. Do not fear the moments when the "star" seems to fade. God has not abandoned you, He is simply inviting you deeper, asking you to trust His Word, His Church, and the community He has given you. After a long journey filled with expectations, the Magi are led not to a palace but to a humble home. A child, small and vulnerable, held by a young mother. No royal robes, no guards, no throne.

Today, a star still shines. It pierces the darkness of our world, our wars, divisions, fears, and uncertainties. The light of Christ does not dim. It does not flicker. It does not retreat. The world needs Epiphany. The Church needs Epiphany. Your family needs Epiphany. You need Epiphany.
