Worship Updates

Streaming Options

There are two ways to view the liturgies of the church when you aren't able to make it in-person. One is via the church's Facebook page and the other is on YouTube.

New Bulletin Formats

Beginning this Sunday, you'll notice new bulletin formats for the 8am and 10:30am Eucharists. Bulletins are now being produced by Amily and now that we are through the Christmas season, it's a good time for a refresh of the design. There are a few goal and intentions driving these changes:

- We seek to be faithful stewards of the earth and prefer a format that does not use as much paper.
- We want to have bulletins that are easy to manage and hold, as well as being aesthetically pleasing.
- We see bulletins as a means to facilitate worship, particularly for those new to the Episcopal style of worship. So this means that things such as service music, readings, and congregational responses are readily accessible in the bulletin.
- We also view the Book of Common Prayer and Hymnal as the foundational texts for our worship tradition - so we do not want bulletins that replace these touchstones of our faith. So longer prayers will not be printed in the bulletins.

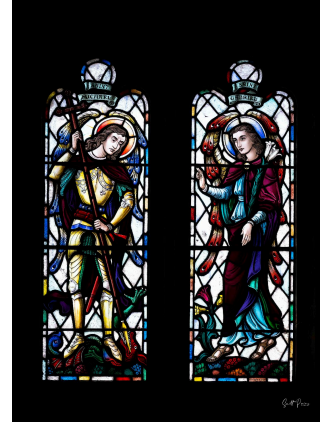

While there is no such thing as the "perfect" or "right" bulletin format, it is our intention that the new format will help us to balance these different values of environmental stewardship, approachable and easy-to-follow worship, and the formational aspects of our Prayer Book tradition.

Docent Training Class

Anyone curious about the history and stories of Grace and St. Stephen's Episcopal Church is welcome to an eight-hour class (4 sessions of 2 hours each week) in February. Although the class includes those interested in becoming a docent, you do not have to plan to serve in the docent ministry to be a part of the class. Class members are those simply interested in the history, stained glass windows, theological foundations of Gothic Revival architecture, the fascinating stories of the people of Grace and St. Stephen's Episcopal Church and other features of who we are as a parish.

Can you identify the nine material objects throughout the buildings which relate to St. Stephen? How did General William Jackson Palmer, the Quaker founder of Colorado Springs, make possible the establishment of the first Episcopal Church in this city in 1873? What is the history and symbolism of the Episcopal banner that hangs in several places among our buildings? Which of the miracles of Jesus is depicted in two different stained-glass windows? Why, following World War II, were there several hundred Sunday School students meeting on Sunday mornings in the homes of parishioners?

The class will meet on Tuesdays, February 3, 10, 17, 24, 5 – 7 PM in the Zimmerman Room of the Christian Education building. You will need to bring a 3-ring binder to hold all the materials you receive. The course is free.

If you are interested in joining us, please contact Marianna McJimsey, Parish Historian and Archivist, by Tuesday, January 20.

Religious Life Sunday

This Sunday we celebrate Religious Life Sunday!

You may have noticed parishioners in black or brown robes or habits. There are a few “religious” in our congregation, people who have chosen to follow Christ in community. Not all of us wear our habits in church, so you might be surprised to find yourself sitting next to a member of a religious community. The Episcopal Church (TEC) designates one Sunday in January every year as Religious Life Sunday.

What is Religious Life? TEC recognizes two distinct forms under the canons: Religious Orders and Christian Communities. Religious Orders take the traditional form that most people think of when they think of monks and nuns – vowed monastics living in community, usually in a monastery. In contrast, Christian Communities live in their own homes, either alone or with their families. Either way, “many are called to join together with others for mutual support in their spiritual journeys, for growth in their life in Christ, and for extension of mission”. We will celebrate Religious Life Sunday in our church on January 18th at the 10:30 service. Here is a link to more information.

Education for Ministry - Community Gathering

Education for Ministry (EfM) has had a group at Grace and St. Stephen's for many years and we hope to have another one starting in the Fall. I'm hosting a Community Gathering to give everyone a taste of a typical EfM evening. This is an opportunity to show you how interesting it can be to discuss your faith in a small group. We will watch a short video on where we see God manifested these days. Then, as we enjoy popcorn and drinks, we will share a guided discussion on the topic.

Location: St. Michael's Episcopal Church, 7400 Tudor Road, Colorado Springs, 80919

Date: Tuesday, Jan 13

Time: 6:30-8:00
