Following cracks found on a MK.10 ejection system fitted to a Hawk T.1A going through routine maintenance at RAF Valley the decision was made to ground all Hawk T.1's until they could all be examined thoroughly. This included 100 Sqn, Red Arrows and those used by the Royal Navy. The Hawk T2's continued flying throughout and it was to be late on Wednesday 4th August before the first few Hawk T.1's returned to flight.

Later confirmed as US Navy E-6B 162782 VQ-4 'RAZZ26' out of Mildenhall and heading for the North of Scotland via Brecon, Valley and Machrihanish and then apparently down the East coast back to Mildenhall. One of the crew had a British accent so could be an exchange Pilot on VQ-4 or a supernumerary crew whilst in UK Airspace.
