FR. TOM LOOMIS PASTOR

Welcome to Holy Week. I pray that we are open to the guidance of the Holy Spirit as we journey together through life, death and Resurrection. I invite you to consider attending the Triduum (three days) which includes Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and the Easter Vigil. It is a time of deep prayer and reflection. It is a life changing time for all who participate. On the Easter Vigil, three people from our community will be joining the church. Please come and pray with them that evening.

On Tuesday evening I will be hearing confessions from 5:00-7:00 at St. Felix. At that time, we will also expose the Blessed Sacrament. I would like to ask all of you to stop by that evening for a minute or two, or as long as you'd like, and pray for peace. We see how the many wars and conflicts in the world do affect how we live and pray. We also know how it affects our families and even our own hearts. Come and pray for the hope of peace that only Jesus can bring about.

Our Gospel, on this Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord, comes from Matthew 26:14-27:66, as you can see it is a lengthy Gospel. It can get uncomfortable at times standing for so long and trying to focus on the words of the Gospel. This year let's prepare ourselves by asking Jesus to send the Holy Spirit to us so that we hear and reflect on what Jesus puts on our hearts. Please know of my prayers, love and support for all of you as we open ourselves to the reality that only Jesus can give us. Let's allow our praying together to touch the minds and hearts of this whole community.

ST. FELIX CATHOLIC SCHOOL ERIC SONNEK, PRINCIPAL

A special thank you to Nicole Shanks and her team of Jackie Lingl, Marie Perry, and Jessica Riester for all their time and work organizing the book fair.

Thank you to all our parent volunteers who helped make it a success.

Thank you to all the people who purchased teacher wish list items for their classrooms.

As we enter Holy Week, our preschool and Kindergarten Readiness class used playdough to help tell the story of Jesus. Through their creativity, the children explored key moments of His journey—bringing faith to life in a hands-on and meaningful way.

Are you looking for some candy to fill Easter baskets? We still have candy bars available!

Reach out to a St. Felix School family or stop by the school office to grab yours. Thank you for your continued support!
