Father Tom Loomis
Pastor

I very much enjoyed spending some time with our seniors at the Baccalaureate Mass. As a community we prayed with them and for them. We realize they are a big part of our faith communities in Wabasha and Kellogg and we continue to pray for them as they continue their journey.

School ended last Thursday at St. Felix and we were able to end the school year with the celebration of the Eucharist. What a great way to end the school year by celebrating the person of Jesus and realizing where all our gifts come from. I hope we have an awareness of how gifted we are at St. Felix School knowing who we are in relationship with Jesus. I invite all of us to hold our teachers, parents, staff and students in our prayers throughout the summer.

I'm looking forward to celebrating Mass at St. Felix cemetery on Memorial Day. The Mass will begin at 8:30 am and the Color Guard will be present at 9:15 am. After that the VFW will be present in the park and then we will go down to the river to pray. We will then lay a wreath in honor of all who have sacrificed to allow us to gather in freedom to celebrate Mass and pray with the larger community after that.

Our Gospel this weekend comes from John 14:23-29. We enter into this reading realizing that Jesus is explaining to his disciples his upcoming death. The disciples don't know what he is talking about and are afraid Jesus will abandon them. Jesus goes on to encourage them to accept the peace only he can offer. Even in the midst of their suffering that will come, the love of Jesus remains. It is a powerful reminder to all of us that we are never abandoned, even when we feel that we are. Jesus promises us that he is always with us. Are we willing to believe that? Are we willing to take a chance on the one who loves us unconditionally?

Peace,
Fr. Tom

Growing in Faith in Jesus Christ and the Church

Are you interested in growing in a relationship with Jesus and becoming an active member of the Catholic Church? We are beginning classes for those seeking to grow and live out their faith. We presently have three adults who are seeking to become Catholic or trying to grow in an understanding of how our Catholic faith directs our lives as Christians. Sessions will involve prayer, presentations, discussion and fellowship. For those who are not Catholic, the goal would be to full initiation in the Catholic Church. We will be meeting after 9:30 Mass a couple times a month. If you have any questions, contact Deacon John or Nancy Hust. Faith is the greatest gift we have to share with others!
