Pastor

I appreciate our experiences while celebrating Father's Day last Sunday. For many families the tradition of honoring fathers, godfathers, spiritual fathers, adoptive fathers, stepfathers, etc. is an important part of family life. I find it important to be able to talk about the beauty of fatherhood but also some of the pain families have experienced over the years with fathers and fatherhood. Please consider praying daily for all the father figures we encounter in our lives. Praying can bring the peace and healing in our lives that we may have been searching for.

The parishes of St. Felix and St. Agnes continue to journey together guided by the Holy Spirit. On August 24th St. Agnes will celebrate 125 years as a worshipping community. A wonderful celebration is being planned with Bishop Barron being able to come and celebrate Mass with us. It will be a very important day for past and present parishioners. Please give thanks in your prayers for the wonderful gift of St. Agnes Church and people. St. Felix continues to move ahead with updating the church. I have tasked a group of parishioners with overseeing this important venture. More details to come in the near future. I ask for your prayers for St. Felix Church and people as we look toward the future with hope and faith.

As we gather around the Altar this weekend to pray and celebrate the Eucharist, as a worldwide church, we focus on the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. Our gospel reading is from Luke 9: 11b-17. The story Luke shares with us is familiar to many of us-the feeding of 5,000 people with five loaves and two fish. Many times we can be uncomfortable with miracles like the feeding of 5,000 people and try to explain it by saying the miracle was that people shared with one another etc. How about today, we sit with the fact that Jesus multiplied the bread and fish and allow this miracle to touch our hearts. May we have the desire to open ourselves up to the miracle of bread and wine becoming the Body and Blood of Jesus as we come together and celebrate the Eucharist. I invite us to not be so quick in dismissing the miracle that Jesus does on the Altar this weekend.

Blessings,
Fr. Tom

Eric Sonnek, Principal

We are excited to share that St. Felix Catholic School will be embarking on a new journey this upcoming school year as we begin the Self-Study process for Accreditation through the Western Catholic Education Association (WCEA).

Accreditation is an important opportunity for our school to reflect deeply on our mission, celebrate our strengths, and identify ways we can grow and better serve our students, families, and parish community. The WCEA accreditation process affirms our commitment to providing a high-quality Catholic education grounded in faith, academic excellence, and service.

This self-study year will be a time of honest evaluation, collaboration, and goal setting as we work with staff, parents, students, and parish members to complete a comprehensive review of all aspects of our school. The process culminates in a site visit from a team of educators during the 2026-2027 school year, who will affirm our efforts and offer valuable insight for continued improvement.

We look forward to keeping you updated throughout the year and involving you in key parts of this process. Your prayers, feedback, and support are vital to our success, and we are grateful for the strong partnership between our school and parish community.

Together, we will continue to build a faith-filled, vibrant, and thriving future for St. Felix Catholic School.

Join the school community for another St. Felix Family Day at Target Field on Wednesday, July 30th! Cheer on the Minnesota Twins as they take on the Boston Red Sox. Discounted tickets are available for our group at this link: <https://fevo-enterprise.com/event/StFelix0730>

Please note our School summer office hours:
Tuesday 8:00 am to noon. Other times are available by appointment.

Diocesan Synod

In August, Sandra Allaire and Ron Zeilinger will be meeting in Mankato for the diocesan Synod. They will be representing our Catholic community. I will also plan on attending the Synod. Bishop Barron has tasked the diocese to come together and talk about these two questions, 1. What practical steps can be taken (at home, in the parish, in the diocese) to spread the Good News of Jesus? 2. What steps can we take (at home, in the parish, in the diocese) to encourage young men to consider a call to the priesthood? As you can see this falls in line with Bishop Barron's call to evangelize and to pray for vocations to the Priesthood. Please feel free to reach out to Sandra (651) 565-2578 or Ron (414) 379-7601 and share any feedback you have to the two questions stated above. Thank you!

2025 Catholic Ministries Appeal
