Father Tom Loomis
Pastor

It was another powerful experience of hope and joy as we celebrated the ordination of three young men to the priesthood, including our own Fr. Jordan Danielson. Fr. Jordan has been with me since his first days at the St. Paul Seminary. Holy Spirit, St. Felix and St. Agnes parishes have helped form him into the priest he is today. Thank you all for your prayers and support of Fr. Jordan on his priesthood journey. I ask for your continued prayers as his first years of priesthood can be difficult at times.

We celebrated Confirmation at St. Felix on Saturday morning. We look forward to the continued journey of those who were Confirmed as they are guided by the Holy Spirit. Please continue to pray for our young people. We know how difficult it can be to follow Jesus on a daily basis. I appreciate Patrick Derleth and Dennis Hetrick for walking closely with our young people who were Confirmed. I ask all of you to please reach out and share your faith with our young people. Where else can they meet Jesus if not in and through you?

As we celebrate Pentecost this weekend we have a number of readings to pick from. The Pentecost Vigil Mass (Saturday 4:30 Mass) will have different readings than Sunday's Pentecost readings. The Gospel reading we will focus on is from the Gospel of John 20:19-23. It is a beautiful scripture about Jesus appearing to his disciples and breathing the Holy Spirit upon them. One line from this Gospel that at times we overlook is the last line, "Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and those whose sins are retained are retained." It is powerful to think about what forgiving someone does, not only for them but also for us who are able to forgive. The power of the Holy Spirit can open us up to the reality that Jesus invites us into. Could you imagine what it would be like to forgive someone and experience the freedom that it offers to them and us? As we receive the gift of the Holy Spirit constantly, are we willing to allow it to penetrate our hearts, minds and souls? If we invite the Holy Spirit in, get ready for the joy only Jesus and the Spirit can give.

Blessings,
Fr. Tom

A Prayer for Summer Break

Dear God,
Thank You for the gift of this season—
a time to rest, recharge, and enjoy the beauty of Your creation.
As summer break begins, fill our days with peace, joy, and gratitude.
Let this time be one of reflection, renewal, and connection—
with loved ones, with nature, and with You.
Protect us in our travels,
bless our time with friends and family,
and guide us to use this break wisely.
May we return refreshed, inspired,
and ready for the path You set before us.

Amen.
