FR. TOM LOOMIS PASTOR

Please welcome Fr. Fortunatus Rwehikiza for the Mission Co-op this weekend at St. Felix and St. Agnes. Fr. Fortunatus will be preaching for the Diocese of Rulenge - Ngara in Tanzania. The Mission Co-op is an annual event for every parish in the Diocese of Winona-Rochester. This is a nice way for the diocese, as a whole, to realize what it means to be part of the Universal Church. Thank you for your continued generosity.

We have the privilege of welcoming a seminarian to St. Felix and St. Agnes from July 13, through the beginning of August. Stephen Ferrazzano comes to us from St. James, MN and will be entering the St. Paul Seminary this fall. Stephen will be in the rectory for a few days by himself because I'm not back until July 17. Feel free to reach out to him when he arrives and make him feel at home. Thank you.

Our gospel reading for this weekend is from Matthew 13:1-23. It is a lengthy but amazing gospel about the Sower and the seed. The seed represents the word of God. The parable centers on our ability and desire to receive that Word. We pray that the Word that falls on us will bear fruit many times over. As we listen to the parable, it seems like on different days the seed falls on different soil in our lives. There are days when it seems like nothing happens in our faith lives, other days can be filled with a deep sense of God's presence. How do we allow ourselves to want to hear the Word of God? Is it something we desire?

MEET OUR SUMMER SEMINARIAN

Hello everyone!

My name is Stephen Ferrazzano and I am a seminarian for the Diocese of Winona- Rochester. I will be starting 'Configuration I' which means I will now go on to study theology at St. Paul Seminary for the remaining four years I have.

Some interesting things about myself is that I am an adult convert to Catholicism, having had a life-changing conversion experience while studying to be a Baptist minister, and I was received into the Church in 2019 at the age of twenty. By God's Grace, my parents soon followed and were received into the Church in 2020. I like to tell people that my life story is proof that God has a sense of humor; I was once very vehemently anti-Catholic in my initial studies as a Baptist, but once I started to realize the truth the Catholic Church taught, the barriers I built around myself soon started to break down, and soon He called me to conversion and the priesthood!

Before seminary I worked as a tax assistant, and a 911 dispatcher. I have a passion for history, writing, and a love for music. I know how to play the drums and was actually a drummer for one of my friend's garage bands, along with being in concert band for school.

I am the only-child of two loving parents: my Dad is a district court judge for Minnesota, and my Mom is a retired EMT.

I look forward to working with you all, and please know of my prayers for you! If there's anything you need, do not hesitate to ask.

Yours in Christ,
-Stephen J. Ferrazzano III
