FR. TOM LOOMIS
PASTOR

A spectacular day last Sunday for the Fall Festival at St. Felix. God is good to us. The weather was great, the volunteers stepped up, the generosity of the community was overwhelming, and gathering together was lifegiving. Thank you to everyone who had a part in making the Fall Festival a success on many levels.

Our next big communal gathering will be for the St. Agnes dinner. I know that St. Agnes is already going full steam ahead and am looking forward to continuing to connect with the larger community.

Please put the October 3rd date on your calendar as we gather in St. Felix auditorium to share a meal and update the community about the feasibility study and plans moving forward concerning the renovation of the church and school. All are welcome.

On this Twenty-Sixth Sunday in ordinary time, we continue to read from the Gospel of Matthew 21:28-32. We hear of a man with two sons who asked each son the same question. We see two totally different responses from the two sons. Jesus points out the one son represents the religious authorities who said, “I'll work in the vineyard” and never went, meaning they never accepted the teachings of John the Baptist or Jesus. The other son, who went into the vineyard represents the sinners that Jesus came to save. What we are reminded of today is that our fate is determined by the presence, not the past. In other words, it's never too late to open our hearts and minds to the reality of Jesus and the salvation that only he can offer. Are we ready to accept the invitation of Jesus to follow him?

PRINCIPAL

Thank You for Making Our 2026 St. Felix Fall Festival a Success!

We would like to extend our sincere gratitude to everyone who helped make this year’s Fall Festival such a wonderful success for our school and parish.

This special day would not have been possible without the generosity, dedication, and enthusiasm of so many people. We are incredibly grateful to everyone who shared their time, talents, resources, and energy to help make the festival such an outstanding day for our community.

There may have been many winners at this year’s festival, but the biggest winners are the children of St. Felix. Because of your generosity, they will continue to benefit from the faith-filled education and opportunities that are the heart of our school.

Thank you for being such an important part of our St. Felix community and for helping make all this possible!

With heartfelt appreciation,

Joshua Krych, Principal
