HOT HAND IN HAWAII

Stewart Cink picked up where he left off last year by winning the season-opener on the PGA Tour Champions, a decisive three-stroke victory at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai in Hawaii.

His fifth Champions title follows a three-win season in 2025, when he won the Charles Schwab Cup. He's won back-to-back events, having claimed the Charles Schwab Cup Championship in November.

Cink led the Mitsubishi with 24 birdies (in 54 holes) and was T1 in driving distance at 312.2 yards with his G440 MAX; the tournament runner-up averaged 312.2 yards with a G440 K driver. Also among Cink's PING technology was a G440 MAX 3W.

Cink won at 23-under, his lowest 54-hole score on the PGA Tour Champions.
