FRIEND LEND ME YOUR EAR

Christ was lucky in his friends. In the midst of the hustle and bustle of a wandering preacher's busy life, he had a haven of rest. When the going was tough he slipped away, occasionally to the home of Lazarus, Martha and Mary at Bethany. It was near Jerusalem and miles from home.

It was Martha who first invited him home. It was Mary who understood that there is more to friendship than doing things for other people. However, if Martha did not get the supper ready, they would all be in trouble. Mary was aware of other needs, the need of people to be accepted for themselves, to share the fears, the anxieties, the hopes and joys of life with another. Each of us need someone to listen to.

In all our caring for each other, we must do more than provide a service, important though that service may be. We must link up as people who cherish each one we serve.

In today's world, the listening and accepting ear maybe the greatest act of friendship.

In His Presence

Lord, I place myself in your presence
after the strain and turmoil of the day.
I rest quietly here, like a little boat,
which has been tossed by the waves
and buffeted by the wind,
rest secure in a sheltered harbor.
Here, my projects lose their power over me.
A healing process begins.
My fragmented self is reassembled,
and I am made whole again.
In your presence, I experience my true worth,
which consists not in doing but, in being.
I surrender myself into your hands, I am at peace.

Fr. Kevin's Korner

AMIGO, PRÉSTAME TU OÍDO

Cristo tuvo suerte con sus amigos. En medio del ajetreo y el bullicio de la vida de un predicador errante, tenía un refugio de descanso. Cuando las cosas se ponían difíciles, se escabullía, de vez en cuando a la casa de Lázaro, Marta y María en Betania. Estaba cerca de Jerusalén y a kilómetros de casa.

Fue Marta quien primero lo invitó a su casa. Fue María quien entendió que la amistad es más que hacer cosas por otras personas. Sin embargo, si Marta no preparaba la cena, todos estarían en problemas. María era consciente de otras necesidades, de la necesidad de las personas de ser aceptadas por sí mismas, de compartir con los demás los miedos, las ansiedades, las esperanzas y las alegrías de la vida. Cada uno de nosotros necesita a alguien a quien escuchar.

En todo nuestro cuidado de los demás, debemos hacer más que proporcionar un servicio, por importante que sea. Debemos unirnos como personas que aprecian a cada uno de los que servimos.

En el mundo de hoy, el oído atento y tolerante puede ser el mayor acto de amistad.

En Su Presencia

Señor, me pongo en tu presencia después de la tensión y la agitación del día.
Descanso tranquilamente aquí,
como un barquito,
que ha sido zarandeado por las olas
Y azotado por el viento, descanse seguro en un puerto protegido.
Aquí mis proyectos pierden su poder sobre mí.
Comienza un proceso de curación.
Mi estantería fragmentada se vuelve a montar,
y he vuelto a estar completo.
En tu presencia, experimento mi
verdadero valor,
que no consiste en hacer sino en ser.
Me entrego en tus manos, estoy en paz.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

July 20, 2025 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 10:38-42

One of my close friends is a hermit priest who lives on a desert mountain. Recently I found myself in a group conversation about him. One vehemently objected, "What does he do up there all day? Nothing! Priests are down here working, running parishes, making a difference, and he...he is doing nothing! What a waste." The words dripped with indignation and resentment. Most of the group quietly nodded in silent agreement. Were they correct?

No! To see why, consider a similar scenario in this week's gospel. Jesus visits his friends Martha and Mary. A hardworking and exasperated Martha complains to Jesus that her sister is attending to him rather than to urgent household tasks. Our Lord, rather than praising hospitality, explicitly celebrates the less-productive sister for doing the "one necessary thing." He praises her for she "has chosen the better part" (Luke 10:42). Mary is busy doing what matters.

Before we freak out like Martha, consider that all work—domestic, manual, professional, ministerial, contemplative—is done to help us (sooner or later) to experience the love that makes us happy. We should be thankful for those who focus on the "better part" of radical, ceaseless prayer. They invite us to remember the purpose of all work is the enjoyment of love. Contemplatives, hermits, anyone fervently committed to prayer—they invite us to cast aside our forgetful, resentful, and self-aggrandizing attitudes in exchange for hearts ready to do what is finally necessary.

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

20 de julio de 2025: XVI Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Lucas 10:38-42

En este domingo, la liturgia de la Palabra nos invita a escuchar cuidadosamente la forma de recibir a los huéspedes. En la primera lectura, Abraham recibe al Señor con gran entusiasmo y le prepara un gran banquete. Dios se detiene, conversa con él y le hace la promesa de que, a su vuelta, Sara, su mujer, tendrá un hijo. “Dentro de un año volveré por aquí, y entonces Sara, tu mujer, tendrá un hijo” (Génesis 18:10). “El Señor siempre nos sorprende: cuando empezamos a escucharlo realmente, las nubes se desvanecen, las dudas dan paso a la verdad, los miedos a la serenidad y las diferentes situaciones de la vida encuentran su lugar que les corresponde. El Señor siempre, cuando viene, arregla las cosas, incluso para nosotros” (Papa Francisco).

San Agustín lo expresa de la siguiente manera en su Sermón 255: “Esta dulcísima tarea había escogido para sí María, que se mantenía inactiva; a la vez aprendía y alababa. En cambio, Marta estaba ocupada en muchas cosas. Lo que hacía era ciertamente necesario, pero pasajero: cosas para el camino, aún no las propias de la vida futura; se ocupaba del viaje, aún no de lo que iba a poseer. Había recibido, en efecto, al Señor y a cuantos iban con él”.

Y continúa, diciendo, explicando el texto de este domingo: “Se dignó ser recibido como huésped no por necesidad, sino por benevolencia. ¿Qué dará Dios a los que lo sirven, lo adoran, creen en él, en él ponen su esperanza y a él aman?”

Mary Madgalene, who was she?

July 22 is the feast of Mary Magdalene. I've heard a lot of stories about her, but who was she really?

Mary Magdalene has been the subject of speculation and scholarship over the last 2,000 years. Mary Magdalene makes her first named appearance in Luke 8:2. She is one of several women following Jesus. Whatever her life looked like before she met Jesus, it wasn't good! Because of this association with being a repentant sinner, Mary Magdalene has been associated with other similar stories in the Gospel, such as the woman caught in adultery or the woman who bathes Jesus' feet with her tears.

Mary Magdalene shows up again by name at the end of the Gospels, when she stands with the Blessed Virgin Mary at the foot of the Cross. Mary is also present in the garden of the resurrection. She is one of the woman who goes to bring spices to Jesus' tomb, where they find the stone rolled away. Mary stays in the garden weeping, believing his body has been stolen. Jesus approaches her and calls her by name, and she becomes the first witness to the resurrection! While many of the details of Mary Magdalene's life have been lost to time, she is an example of powerful conversion, deep faith, and intimate love for Christ.

Hail Mary, full of grace,
the Lord is with you;
blessed are you among women,
and blessed is the fruit of your womb, Jesus.
Holy Mary mother of God, pray for us;
now and at the hour of our death,
Amen.

Catholic Trivia Question:
