Fr. Kevin's Korner

WE ARE CALLED TO DECLARE OUR LOYALTIES

Christ knew where he stood. He fully realized that evil, selfishness, fear and sin were part of the world of his time. He was not so foolish as to think that everyone was going to agree with his teaching, and to build a world of peace based on justice and love. But he was very clear that this was exactly what his followers must work towards in every situation, in every generation no matter what the cost.

Such a task is bound to cause division between those who want to build a society where care of one another is the life blood and those who want a society where might is right and selfishness is the call to action. Those who aim to live by Christ's values must risk unpopularity and rejection even among those closest to them. You cannot expect everyone to agree with you when you do what is right. To always do what one knows is right, is often a lonely road. Christ asks his followers to travel that road and not to compromise on fidelity or justice. He calls us to generosity and courage. Some answer his call. Some do not. So there is bound to be division, two against three and three against two as we read in today's Gospel.

True and False Peace

A swamp may look nice on the surface,
but its depths are full of rotten things.
Peace that is based on injustice is like that.
It is a false peace and Jesus came to disrupt it.
But then there is true peace -
a peace in which all of God's children have their basic rights respected, and are able to live in freedom and dignity.
This is the peace Jesus came to bring.
But peace like this doesn't happen; it has to be made.
Sometimes the peacemakers will be branded troublemakers.
But Jesus had another name for them: He called them 'Children of God.'

Fr. Kevin's Korner

ESTAMOS LLAMADOS A DECLARAR NUESTRA LEALTAD

Cristo sabía dónde estaba. Se dio cuenta plenamente de que el mal, el egoísmo, el miedo y el pecado eran parte del mundo de su tiempo. No era tan tonto como para pensar que todos iban a estar de acuerdo con su enseñanza y construir un mundo de paz basado en la justicia y el amor. Pero tenía muy claro que esto era exactamente por lo que sus seguidores debían trabajar en cada situación, en cada generación, sin importar el costo.

Tal tarea está destinada a causar división entre aquellos que quieren construir una sociedad donde el cuidado mutuo sea la sangre vital y aquellos que quieren una sociedad donde el poder sea el derecho y el egoísmo sea el llamado a la acción. Aquellos que aspiran a vivir según los valores de Cristo deben arriesgarse a la impopularidad y al rechazo incluso entre los más cercanos a ellos. No puedes esperar que todos estén de acuerdo contigo cuando haces lo correcto. Hacer siempre lo que uno sabe que es correcto, es a menudo un camino solitario. Cristo pide a sus seguidores que recorran ese camino y que no comprometan la fidelidad o la justicia. Nos llama a la generosidad y al coraje. Algunos respondieron a su llamado. Algunos no. Por lo tanto, es inevitable que haya división, dos contra tres y tres contra dos, como leemos en el Evangelio de hoy.

Paz verdadera y falsa

Un pantano puede verse bien en la superficie, pero sus profundidades están llenas de cosas podridas.

La paz que se basa en la injusticia es así.

Es una paz falsa y Jesús vino a interrumpirla.

Pero luego hay una verdadera paz, una paz en la que todos los hijos de Dios tienen sus derechos básicos respetados y pueden vivir en libertad y dignidad.

Esta es la paz que Jesús vino a traer.

Pero una paz como esta no sucede; tiene que hacerse.

A veces, los pacificadores serán tildados de alborotadores.

Pero Jesús tenía otro nombre para ellos: los llamó 'Hijos de Dios'.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

August 17, 2025 —20th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 12:49-53

During my baseball career, my best coach often said, “You shouldn’t be worried if I yell at you. Be worried if I don’t. If I stop pushing you, it means I don’t think you have any more potential.” He demanded a lot, and I knew it meant he saw that I could be something special on the baseball field.

Jesus says some demanding words to us this week. “Do you think I have come to establish peace on the earth?” he asks, “No, tell you, but rather division” (Luke 12:51). He wants you and me—in fact, all the earth—to participate in the luminous glory of God. That’s why he speaks of himself as a divine arsonist. Divine fire is like a good coach: it demands the removal of all that obstructs the achievement of the lofty goal.

How is your life demanding right now? That inconvenient family situation, the unfair boss at work, the kids who reject their parents’ wishes, the nagging health issue? Maybe things would be more peaceful devoid of these seemingly arbitrary difficulties. But for us who believe in the one who comes to set the earth of fire, we should be much more worried if he stops demanding so much from us. In fact, let’s thank him for it. He sees how glorious we can become.

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

17 de Agosto de 2025: XX Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Lucas 12:49-53

La forma como nos llevamos a veces en la familia y con los amigos es dolorosa: pleitos, venganzas, argumentos sin sentido, tan solo para herirnos. Alegamos por política, por deporte, por religión y más. Nos encendemos de la nada; pareciera que traemos fuego para discutir. Perdemos el control de la nada y por nada. Pero el fuego del que Jesús nos habla hoy es diferente. Es el fuego de la justicia, del perdón y de la inclusión: "He venido a traer fuego a la tierra, y ¡cuánto desearía que ya estuviera ardiendo!" (Lucas 12:49). Compartir esa pasión por Jesús es algo que muy pocos entienden. Se trata del fuego del Espíritu Santo en nosotros.

De nuevo se nos repite la misión de Jesús al mundo: "Traer a la tierra el fuego que enciende la vida y mediante el cual el hombre es salvado. Jesús nos llama a difundir en el mundo este fuego, gracias al cual seremos reconocidos como sus verdaderos discípulos" (Papa Francisco). San Juan Crisóstomo (c. 350-407) decía que: "Esto es el fuego del Espíritu Santo: él no tolera que se tenga algún deseo mundano; en cuanto, nos conduce a otro tipo de amor... De hecho, cuando la fuerza de este fuego ha entrado en el alma del hombre, éste expulsa la indiferencia y la pereza". Dejarnos conducir por el Espíritu Santo es el secreto que nos dispone a dar la cara por la justicia y la paz. De esas divisiones habla Jesús, referente a estar en contra unos de otros en la familia y los amigos. Es que vivir el Evangelio y ser testigos de él dando testimonio divide.
