THE PRODIGAL DAUGHTER

We are all familiar with the parable of the prodigal son. So, how about looking at this parable from a unique perspective and reflecting on the 'Prodigal Daughter.' Oh, a different story.

Let's tell her story.

Clare, an only child, grew up in a loving home. Her parents are hardworking, loving, and devout Catholics. Some might say that they were a traditional-minded family.

When Clare reached her teenage years, she became rebellious, sullen, non-communicative, and refusing to attend church on Sundays. Some would even say she was hanging out with the wrong crowd.

Disgusted with, in her mind, her old fashioned parents who overreacted to her nose ring, the music she listened to, and the length of her skirts, she runs away from home.

Clare ended up in New York City, where she meets a man who drives the biggest car she's ever seen. The man with the big car she calls him 'Boss.' He recognizes that he could make a lot of money from her. So, she goes to work for him. Things are great for a while. Life is good. But she gets sick for a few days, and it amazes her how quickly the boss turned mean. Before she knows it, she is out on the streets without a penny to her name. She still walks the streets at night, and all her money goes to support her drug habit.

One night, while sleeping on the metal grates of the city, she begins to feel less like a woman of the world, and more like a little girl. She begins to whimper, "God, why did I leave, my dog back home eats better than I do now."

She knows that more than anything in the world she wants to go home. Three straight calls home gets three straight connections with the answering machine. Finally, she leaves a message. "Mom, dad, it is me. I was wondering about coming home. I am catching a bus up your way, and it will get there about midnight tomorrow. If you are not there, I will understand."

During the seven-hour bus ride, she is preparing a speech for her father. When the bus comes to a stop at her hometown, the driver announces the fifteen-minute stop. Fifteen minutes! Fifteen minutes that will decide the rest of her life.

She walks into the terminal not knowing what to expect. Not one of those thousand scenes that she played out in her mind prepares her for what she sees. There in the bus terminal stands a group of family members, aunts, uncles, cousins, grandparents, and great grandmother standing under the largest banner ever, "Welcome Home." Out of the crowd of well-wishers breaks her dad. She stares out through the tears quivering in her eyes and begins her memorized speech. Her father interrupts her, "Hush child. We have no time for that. No time for apologies. We will be late. A big party is waiting for you at home." Food for thought!

Fr. Kevin's Korner

LA HIJA PRÓDIGA

Todos estamos familiarizados con la parábola del hijo pródigo. Entonces, ¿qué tal si miramos esta parábola desde una perspectiva única y reflexionamos sobre la 'Hija Pródiga'? Oh, una historia diferente.

Vamos a contar su historia.

Clare, hija única, creció en un hogar amoroso. Sus padres son católicos trabajadores, cariñosos y devotos. Algunos podrían decir que eran una familia de mentalidad tradicional.

Cuando Clare llegó a la adolescencia, se volvió rebelde, hosca, poco comunicativa y se negaba a asistir a la iglesia los domingos. Algunos incluso dirían que estaba pasando el rato con la gente equivocada. Disgustada con, en su mente, sus padres anticuados que reaccionaron exageradamente a su aro en la nariz, la música que escuchaba y la longitud de sus faldas, se escapa de casa.

Clare terminó en la ciudad de Nueva York, donde conoce a un hombre que conduce el auto más grande que jamás haya visto. El hombre con el auto grande lo llama 'jefe'. Él reconoce que podría ganar mucho dinero con ella. Entonces, ella va a trabajar para él. Las cosas son geniales por un tiempo. La vida es buena. Pero se enferma durante unos días y le sorprende lo rápido que el jefe se volvió malo. Antes de que se dé cuenta, está en las calles sin un centavo a su nombre. Todavía camina por las calles por la noche y todo su dinero se destina a mantener su adicción a las drogas.

Una noche, mientras duerme en las rejas metálicas de la ciudad, comienza a sentirse menos como una mujer de mundo y más como una niña pequeña. Ella comienza a gemir: "Dios, por qué me fui, mi perro en casa come mejor que yo ahora".

Ella sabe que más que nada en el mundo quiere volver a casa. Tres llamadas seguidas a casa obtienen tres conexiones directas con el contestador automático. Finalmente, deja un mensaje. "Mamá, papá, soy yo. Me preguntaba si volvería a casa. Voy a tomar un autobús en su camino, y llegará allí alrededor de la medianoche de mañana. Si no estás allí, lo entenderé".

Durante el viaje en autobús de siete horas, está preparando un discurso para su padre. Y cuando el autobús se detiene en su ciudad natal, el conductor anuncia la parada de quince minutos. ¡Quince minutos! Quince minutos que decidirán el resto de su vida.

Entra en la terminal sin saber qué esperar. Ninguna de esas mil escenas que representó en su mente la prepara para lo que ve. Allí, en la terminal de autobuses, se encuentra un grupo de familiares, tíos, primos, abuelos y bisabuelas de pie bajo la pancarta más grande siempre, "Bienvenido a casa". De la multitud de simpatizantes sale su padre. Ella mira a través de las lágrimas que tiemblan en sus ojos y comienza su discurso memorizado. Su padre la interrumpe: "Cállate, niña. No tenemos tiempo para eso. No hay tiempo para disculpas. Llegaremos tarde. Una gran fiesta te espera en casa". ¡Algo para reflexionar!

GOSPEL MEDITATION

September 14, 2025 —The Exaltation of the Cross
John 3:13-17

One of my favorite movies is the 1991 comedy What About Bob? Bill Murray plays a troubled, paranoid hypochondriac named Bob Wiley who innocently but annoyingly hounds Dr. Leo Marvin, played by Richard Dreyfuss. Bob is paralyzed by his fear of, well, everything, and is convinced the psychologist can heal him. But Dr. Marvin's failed attempts to heal Bob end up driving the doctor to attempt to murder Bob. He fails. The surprise is that, having faced death head on, Bob is suddenly healed. He attributes his healing to Dr. Marvin for break-through "death therapy." In facing the cause of his deepest illness and dysfunction, Bob is healed.

Underneath this light-hearted comedy is a dead-serious resonance with this week's feast: the Exaltation of the Holy Cross. Christ is lifted up on the cross to force us to face the truth of sin and death. In that reckoning we find healing. Like Moses' snake on a pole, the cross says: this is what is causing your sickness – rebellion, disobedience, sin. Look at it! Don't run from it. Now seeing it exposed, we see life. We see our physician mercifully healing us. In this sense, we are all like Bob Wiley. The "death therapy" of the cross is our only hope for healing.

This week I invite you to "exalt the cross." If you don't have one in your house, get one. Use it for prayer. Gaze on it frequently. It teaches us to not be afraid. It heals us.

— Father John Muir

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

14 de septiembre de 2025: Exaltación de la Santa Cruz
Juan 3:13-17

"La Cruz es el camino que conduce de la tierra al cielo. Quien se abraza a ella con fe, amor y esperanza se siente transportado a lo alto, hasta el seno de la Trinidad" (Santa Benedicta de la Cruz). También decía en sus escritos: "La Cruz es el símbolo de la transformación de la debilidad en la fuerza". Muchas personas llevan en su pecho una cruz y, muchas veces, la lucen tan solo porque es de oro y luce bonita. Pero, ¿sabes lo que significa? ¿Qué respeto tienes por ella?

"Hoy, 14 de septiembre, la Iglesia celebra la fiesta de la Exaltación de la Santa Cruz. Alguna persona podría preguntarnos: ¿Por qué exaltar la cruz? Podemos responder que no exaltamos una cruz cualquiera, o todas las cruces; exaltamos la cruz de Jesús, porque en ella se reveló al máximo el amor de Dios por la humanidad. Es lo que nos recuerda el evangelio de Juan en la liturgia de hoy: 'Tanto amó Dios al mundo que entregó a su Unigénito' (3:16). El Padre dio al Hijo para salvarnos, y esto implicó la muerte de Jesús, y la muerte en la cruz. ¿Por qué? ¿Por qué fue necesaria la cruz? A causa de la gravedad del mal que nos esclavizaba. La cruz de Jesús expresa ambas cosas: toda la fuerza negativa del mal y toda la omnipotencia mansa de la misericordia de Dios" (Papa Francisco). Por la señal de la santa cruz...
