THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

THAT THE WORLD
MIGHT BE

SAVED.

— JOHN 3:17 —

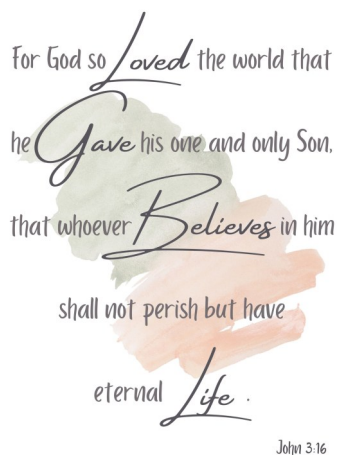

PART OF GOD'S FAMILY

The mystery of the Holy Trinity is at the heart of our faith. When we call the Trinity a mystery, we do not mean that nothing can be known about it. Rather, it means that while we can come to know God truly, we can never fully comprehend the greatness of God. Faith does not oppose reason—it goes beyond it. This is especially true when we reflect on the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

A beautiful Russian icon of the Blessed Trinity, painted by the monk Rublev, offers a powerful image of this mystery. The icon shows the three Divine Persons seated around a table prepared for a banquet. Yet one detail stands out immediately: there is an empty place at the table.

That empty place is intentional. It symbolizes welcome, hospitality, and God's invitation to every person. The open place is meant for each one of us and for the whole human family. God invites us to come and share in His divine life. He calls us not as strangers, but as beloved children.

For God so Loved the world that he Gave his one and only Son, that whoever Believes in him shall not perish but have eternal Life.

John 3:16

Through Jesus Christ, we are no longer outsiders. Christ has drawn us into the family of God. As we hear in today's Gospel: "God loved the world so much that He gave His only Son, so that everyone who believes in Him may not be lost but may have eternal life." This is the great mystery of love.

Our response to such love should be trust in God and love for one another. St. Paul reminds us: "Help one another. Be united; live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you."

Rublev's icon not only reveals God's welcoming love, but also challenges us to examine our own hearts. Are we welcoming and hospitable to others, especially to strangers, the lonely, and those in need? In a world filled with division and displacement, the Gospel calls us to open our hearts and homes with compassion.

Hospitality toward friends is often easy, but welcoming the stranger can be more difficult—and more Christ-like. For followers of Jesus, hospitality is not optional; it is central to the Gospel message.

Many people feel intimidated by the mystery of the Trinity, but we should not be afraid. God may remain a mystery beyond our understanding, but He is never distant or unknown. The Father, Son, and Holy Spirit are close to us—loving companions who invite us into prayer, friendship, and eternal life.

God has already given us a place at the banquet of earthly life, and He desires for us to share forever at the banquet of eternal life. Only at God's table will our hearts find the peace and nourishment they truly seek.

PARTE DE LA FAMILIA DE DIOS

El misterio de la Santísima Trinidad está en el corazón de nuestra fe. Cuando llamamos a la Trinidad un misterio, no queremos decir que no se pueda saber nada sobre ella. Más bien, significa que, aunque podamos llegar a conocer a Dios verdaderamente, nunca podemos comprender plenamente la grandeza de Dios. La fe no se opone a la razón—va más allá. Esto es especialmente cierto cuando reflexionamos sobre el Padre, el Hijo y el Espíritu Santo.

Un hermoso icono ruso de la Santísima Trinidad, pintado por el monje Rublev, ofrece una imagen poderosa de este misterio. El icono muestra a las tres Personas Divinas sentadas alrededor de una mesa preparada para un banquete. Sin embargo, un detalle llama la atención de inmediato: hay un lugar vacío en la mesa.

Ese lugar vacío es intencionado. Simboliza la bienvenida, la hospitalidad y la invitación de Dios a cada persona. El espacio abierto está pensado para cada uno de nosotros y para toda la familia humana. Dios nos invita a venir y compartir Su vida divina. No nos llama extraños, sino niños queridos.

Por Jesucristo, ya no somos forasteros. Cristo nos ha integrado en la familia de Dios. Como escuchamos en el Evangelio de hoy: "Dios amó tanto al mundo que dio a su único Hijo, para que todo aquel que cree en Él no se pierda, sino que tenga vida eterna." Este es el gran misterio del amor.

Nuestra respuesta a ese amor debería ser la confianza en Dios y el amor mutuo. San Pablo nos recuerda: "Ayudaos unos a otros. Uníos; vivid en paz, y el Dios del amor y la paz estará con vosotros."

El icono de Rublev no solo revela el amor acogedor de Dios, sino que también nos desafía a examinar nuestro propio corazón. ¿Somos acogedores y hospitalarios con los demás, especialmente con los desconocidos, los solitarios y los necesitados? En un mundo lleno de división y desplazamiento, el Evangelio nos llama a abrir nuestros corazones y hogares con compasión.

La hospitalidad hacia los amigos suele ser fácil, pero dar la bienvenida al desconocido puede ser más difícil —y más propio de Cristo. Para los seguidores de Jesús, la hospitalidad no es opcional; es central en el mensaje del Evangelio.

Mucha gente se siente intimidada por el misterio de la Trinidad, pero no deberíamos tener miedo. Dios puede seguir siendo un misterio más allá de nuestra comprensión, pero nunca está lejano ni desconocido. El Padre, el Hijo y el Espíritu Santo están cerca de nosotros: compañeros amorosos que nos invitan a la oración, la amistad y la vida eterna.

Dios ya nos ha dado un lugar en el banquete de la vida terrenal, y desea que compartamos para siempre en el banquete de la vida eterna. Solo en la mesa de Dios nuestros corazones encontrarán la paz y el alimento que realmente buscan.

PORQUE TANTO amó Dios AL MUNDO,
QUE DIO A su Hijo unigénito,
PARA QUE TODO EL QUE cree en él NO SE PIERDA, SINO QUE tenga vida eterna.

PRAYER TO ST. ANTHONY DE PADUA

Lord, may our faith in you open us to a new life that springs from the Spirit and is sustained by you.

May it make us part of a Spirit-filled humanity, whose fruits are love, peace, and joy. Grant through the intercession of St. Anthony that we may continue to grow in our faith. In following the witness of his life, may we live in peace. In union with St. Anthony let us raise our hearts to you, our source of hope and consolation. Amen.

GOSPEL MEDITATION | May 31, 2026—The Most Holy Trinity | John 3:16-18 (Father John Muir)

I was 16 years old on a youth group retreat in the mountains. One night, I opened my heart to the message being proclaimed: that God so loved the world that He sent His Son for us. Later, I lay under the pine trees and looked up at the countless stars. They seemed different. No longer cold, distant balls of chemical reactions, they appeared as an expression of God's love, as if He were giving those stars directly to me. The truth of God sending His Son changed how I saw the whole universe.

That is what today's Gospel reveals: "God so loved the world that he gave his only Son." (John 3:16) The universe is not just a whirl of impersonal forces or empty space. At its heart is a gift: the Father eternally giving the Son, not to condemn, but to bring life.

This is not abstract doctrine but deeply personal. God gives His Son for you and me. Each human life is precious enough to be caught up in that eternal gift.

It is in the Mass where we encounter this most directly. In the Word proclaimed, in the assembly gathered, in the priest, and above all in the Eucharist, the Father once again gives His Son. What looks like bread and wine is the drama of the Trinity, laboring to love us here and now.

The Trinity is not a puzzle to solve but the blazing Truth at the center of everything: the Father gives the Son for you and me. Lord, help us to see this more clearly.

Mini reflection: Our failure to understand is not a poverty. It is a gift. It propels us constantly back to the wellspring of our glorious Faith — to Scripture, to Tradition, to the in-dwelling of the Holy Spirit which sustains each and every one of us who dare to believe.

The Gift of Not Understanding

I once listened to Bishop Daniel Flores — a renowned scholar and prelate — give a 70-minute talk on the Trinitarian nature of God. In those 70 minutes, Bishop Flores said a lot of eloquent things. But what that really landed with me was not any group of words, but a single gesture.

Defining hypostasis, the term we use for the "the reciprocal dynamic relations that constitute distinct identities within the Godhead" (yes, I am using his words because I could never, in a million years, trust my own) Bishop Flores said "the Father and the Son are true God, but the Father is not the Son, and the Son is not the Father. How not? Different hypostasis."

And here his eyes grew wide; he turned his head and opened his hands, drawing back as if from a spooked horse. The implication was clear: Any further than this, I dare not go.

I've never felt so seen.

Sometimes, I make the mistake of thinking that I am unique in my inability to understand the great mysteries. Sometimes, I despair that I am not a "better Catholic" — one who will rush headfirst into the crosshairs of a hard question, confident in the words that come immediately to my lips.

But when I saw Bishop Flores flinch at the thought of defining how, exactly, the Son is not the Father, and vice versa, I remembered that only fools rush in where angels fear to tread.

This Sunday, friends, take heart: our failure to understand is not a poverty. It is a gift. It propels us constantly back to the wellspring of our glorious Faith — to Scripture, to Tradition, to the in-dwelling of the Holy Spirit which sustains each and every one of us who dare to believe.

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO | 31 de mayo de 2026—La Santísima Trinidad | Juan 3:16-18

¡Gloria al Padre, gloria al Hijo y gloria al Espíritu Santo! “¡Así amó Dios al mundo! Le dio al Hijo Único, para que quien cree en él no se pierda, sino que tenga vida eterna” (Juan 3:16). Después de la solemnidad de Pentecostés, que celebramos el domingo pasado, la Iglesia nos invita ahora a celebrar el gran misterio de la Santísima Trinidad: misterio de amor y de unidad.

El Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica (número 253) nos habla del dogma de la Santísima Trinidad:

La Trinidad es una. No confesamos tres dioses sino un solo Dios en tres personas: "la Trinidad consubstancial". Las personas divinas no se reparten la única divinidad, sino que cada una de ellas es enteramente Dios: "El Padre es lo mismo que es el Hijo, el Hijo lo mismo que es el Padre, el Padre y el Hijo lo mismo que el Espíritu Santo, es decir, un solo Dios por naturaleza". "Cada una de las tres personas es esta realidad, es decir, la substancia, la esencia o la naturaleza divina". Por la gracia del bautismo, "en el nombre del Padre y del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo", somos llamados a participar en la vida de la Bienaventurada Trinidad: aquí abajo, en la oscuridad de la fe, y después de la muerte, en la luz eterna (CIC 265). Dios es amor, y cualquiera de nosotros que haya experimentado lo que es el verdadero amor puede comprender, por la gracia del Espíritu Santo, este gran misterio de fe. La esencia de la Trinidad es servir y amar; por lo tanto, como cristianos, a eso estamos llamados: a servir y amar.

Mini-reflexión: Nuestra falta de comprensión no es una pobreza. Es un regalo. Nos impulsa constantemente de vuelta al manantial de nuestra gloriosa Fe — a las Escrituras, a la Tradición, a la morada del Espíritu Santo que sostiene a cada uno de nosotros que nos atrevemos a creer.

El Regalo de No Entender

Una vez escuché al obispo Daniel Flores — un reconocido erudito y prelado — dar una charla de 70 minutos sobre la naturaleza trinitaria de Dios. En esos 70 minutos, el obispo Flores dijo muchas cosas elocuentes. Pero lo que realmente me impactó no fue un grupo de palabras, sino un solo gesto.

Definiendo la hipóstasis, el término que usamos para las "relaciones dinámicas recíprocas que constituyen identidades distintas dentro de la Divinidad" (sí, uso sus palabras porque jamás, en un millón de años, podría confiar en las mías), el obispo Flores dijo: "el Padre y el Hijo son el verdadero Dios, pero el Padre no es el Hijo, y el Hijo no es el Padre. ¿Cómo no? Otra hipóstasis."

Y ahí sus ojos se abrieron grandemente; giró la cabeza y abrió las manos, apartándose como si se alejara de un caballo asustado. La implicación era clara: Más allá de esto, no me atrevo a ir.

Nunca me había sentido tan vista.

A veces, cometo el error de pensar que soy única en mi incapacidad para comprender los grandes misterios. A veces, desespero por no ser una "mejor católica" — alguien que se lanzará de cabeza al punto de mira de una pregunta difícil, segura de las palabras que salen inmediatamente a mis labios.

Pero cuando vi al obispo Flores estremecerse ante la idea de definir cómo, exactamente, el Hijo no es el Padre, y viceversa, recordé que solo los necios se lanzan donde los ángeles temen pisar.

Este domingo, amigos, ánimo; nuestra falta de comprensión no es una pobreza. Es un regalo. Nos impulsa constantemente de vuelta al manantial de nuestra gloriosa Fe — a las Escrituras, a la Tradición, a la morada del Espíritu Santo que sostiene a cada uno de nosotros que nos atrevemos a creer.
