WHO IS JACOB CARLILE?

Jacob Carlile is a young entrepreneur and investor based in South East Queensland, Australia. Having grown up in his family's small business Jacob learnt from a young age how to work hard but also what it takes to succeed in business.

Jacob has a passion for business and loves to immerse himself in everything from marketing to sales to crunching the numbers and hopes through his study of business and those who drive success within the business environment to one day help shape the future of successful businesses within Australia and across the globe.

He has worked with companies large and small on the dynamics of change and adapting to the modern world. Jacob is an avid investor and opportunist always looking to capitalise and develop with a focus on the future.

SPEAKING EXPERIENCE

Since a young age Jacob has had a flare for the stage and performing, channelling his personality and empowering those around him.

Jacob has spoken on stages such as, one of south east Queensland's most premier venues, the Empire Theatre, for the Toowoomba Chamber of Commerce as well as on a smaller scale on the stages of schools and community groups.

Jacob has delivered hour long keynote speeches as well as MC and introductory pieces and interactive workshops and seminars.

TOPICS & PROGRAMS

Jacob has a broad base of speaking topics and programs which he has delivered to crowds large and small.

SOCIAL MEDIA - THE DYNAMICS OF CHANGE

Having had the privilege of working with companies large and small Jacob understands how to develop effective digital marketing strategies to help stand out from the rest. Through his consultancy work Jacob has helped deliver results to salespeople, managers and corporates directly contributing to their bottom line.

ENTREPRENEURSHIP - TIME IS THE COMMODITY

Everyone has to start somewhere, Jacob has been able to help young business people in start-up phase develop their idea into a real product or service through his realistic and practical knowledge of the business landscape. In today's every changing world it has never been more important to understand the value of time and where we spend it.

PERSONAL/PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT EMPOWER | INNOVATE | CREATE

Having a unique experience in growing up in small business and working with large corporations Jacob is able to speak to the key fundamentals of business from a micro day to day and wider macro perspectives.

Jacob's strength lies in being able to resonate with large crowds but have a very individually empowering message meaning everyone can take something away and be able to put their learnings in motion immediately.
