

GUIDE FOR A GOOD CONFESSION

BEFORE CONFESSION

Be truly sorry for your sins. The essential act of Penance, on the part of the sinner, is contrition, a clear and decisive rejection of the sin committed, together with a resolution not to commit it again, out of love one has for God. Understood in this way, contrition is, therefore, the beginning and heart of conversion which brings the person back to God, and which has in the Sacrament of Penance its visible sign. The resolution to avoid committing these sins in the future (amendment) is a sure sign that your sorrow is genuine and authentic. This does not mean that one will never sin again. A resolution to try to avoid the near occasions of sin suffices for true repentance. God’s grace in cooperation with the intention to rectify your life will give the strength to resist and overcome temptation in the future.

If you have any questions you can ask the Priest. Then add:
I am sorry for these and all the sins of my past life that I don’t remember.

The Priest will assign you some penance and give you some advice to help you to be a better Christian. Listen to the words and be willing to do the penance as soon as possible. The penance will diminish the temporal punishment due to sins already forgiven.

ACT OF CONTRITION

O my God, I am heartily sorry for having offended Thee, and I detest all my sins because I dread the loss of Heaven and the pains of Hell, but most of all because they offend Thee, my God, Who art all-good and deserving of all my love. I firmly resolve, with the help of Thy grace, to confess my sins, to do penance, and to amend my life. Amen.

AFTER CONFESSION

*Give thanks to God for having forgiven you once again.

*Promptly and devoutly fulfill the penance given by the Priest. Although you may receive Holy Communion even before performing your penance, it is advisable to do it as soon as possible.

*If you recall some serious sin that you forgot to tell, rest assured that it has been forgiven with the others but be sure to include it in your next Confession.
