READINGS FOR TODAY

First Reading: Oh, that you would rend the heavens and come down (IS 63:16B-17, 19B; 64:2-7)

Psalm: Lord, make us turn to you; let us see your face and we shall be saved. (Ps 80)

Second Reading: We wait for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ. (1 COR 1:3-9)

Gospel: Be watchful! Be alert! You do not know when the time will come (MK 13:33-37)

Eucharistic Miracle of SAN MAURO LA BRUCA ITALY, 1969

On the night of July 25, 1969, some thieves broke into the parish church of San Mauro la Bruca with the intention of stealing some of the more precious objects. After they had pried open the tabernacle, they took a ciborium containing many consecrated Hosts. Once they left the church, the thieves emptied the ciborium and threw the Hosts on a footpath. On the following morning, a child noticed the pile of Hosts at the intersection of the road and gathering them up, he immediately gave them to the pastor. It was only in 1994, after 25 years of detailed analysis, that Msgr. Biagio D'Agostino, Bishop of Vallo della Lucania, acknowledged the miraculous preservation of the Hosts and authorized the cult. The conclusion of any chemical and scientific analysis acknowledges that after just 6 months wheat flour severely deteriorates and in a few years turns gelatinous and then, finally, to dust.

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Fr. Kuriakose Nadooparambil, MF
Pastor

Today we begin the season of Advent, which marks the start of a new liturgical year for the Church. The readings for Sunday Mass are arranged on a three-year cycle. Each year features a different Gospel—Matthew, Mark, or Luke. Readings from the Gospel of John are interspersed throughout all three years. With this year's first Sunday of Advent, we begin Cycle B of the Lectionary, which focuses our attention on the Gospel of Mark. The readings of this week are from Mark's Gospel which present the important Advent themes: the Lord's return at the end of time.

In the advent season, we do not watch for something that had already happened two thousand years ago, but we are watching for Jesus' promise to be fulfilled. Jesus promised that he would come again in his glory to bring us with him. The trick is: no one knows the hour. What is "the hour" Jesus talked about? Let us say: the hour that each of us will leave this world. No one knows when the hour comes. The hour may come when we are busy working, shopping, partying, or when we are drowsy and sleeping. Many people died on the street; people died at home alone; many people died in their sleep, etc., you name it. The question is: what do you think when you witness someone gone unexpectedly.

Be watchful! Be alert! That is what Jesus wants his disciples to do. Jesus reminds each of us that as long as we are still on earth, we still have to fulfill our daily responsibilities with God, our family, and our community.

St. Paul gives us important spiritual advice: make sure that "... you are not lacking in any spiritual gift as you wait for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ." In other words, while we are waiting for Jesus' second coming, we have to make progress, day by day, in virtues, true faith, and right actions. One of the Christian principles is that we have to find a way to keep our relationship with Jesus Christ going. Do not stop praying; do not stop charity; don't stop forgiving, etc. Remember: when our faith and charity are idled, that is the good time devils work on us.

Dear friends in Christ, we are waiting in silence because Jesus will come in "silence." We silence our anxious heart; we silence our ambition heart; and we silence our sinful habits to welcome Christ when he comes. Although we are living in a noisy world, we still practice our silence. During this advent season, we need to slow down. We need to have some quiet time with the Lord in the church and our house. We need quiet time to examine our conscience to see what we need to change; we need to do more in our relationship with Jesus and others.

I suggest two things we can do in this Advent season: one, we need to connect more deeply with the gospel. Two, we need to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation and the Eucharist during this special time. There is only more joy and hope in our heart when we connect with Jesus again through his word and sacraments.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Prima Lectura: ¡Ojalá rasgases el cielo y descendieses!
(Is 63, 16b-17. 19b; 64, 2b-7)

Salmo: Señor, muéstranos tu favor y sálvanos. (Salmo 79)

Segunda Lectura: Aguardamos la manifestación de nuestro Señor Jesucristo. (1 Co 1, 3-9)

Evangelio: Velad, pues no sabéis cuándo vendrá el señor del la casa. (Mt 25, 31-46)

Milagro Eucarístico de SAN MAURO LA BRUCA ITALIA, 1969

En la noche del 25 de julio de 1969, unos ladrones entraron furtivamente dentro de la iglesia parroquial de San Mauro la Bruca con la intención de robar los objetos más preciosos. Después de haber roto el tabernáculo, se llevaron la píside con numerosas Hostias consagradas. Apenas salieron de la iglesia, botaron las Hostias en un callejón. Al día siguiente, un niño notó que en una esquina del callejón por donde pasaba estaban las Hostias. Después de haberlas recogido, las entregó de inmediato al párroco. Sólo en 1994, después de 25 años de exhaustivos análisis, Monseñor Biagio D'Agostino, Obispo del Valle de la Lucania, reconoció la conservación milagrosa de las Partículas autorizando consecuentemente su culto. Se sabe que gracias a la experiencia de análisis realizados por científicos, luego de seis meses la harina ácima se deteriora gradualmente hasta el punto que luego de un par de años se reduce a una materia pegajosa y más tarde en polvo.

Qué grato es volver los ojos al pasado, a nuestro pasado en Israel, porque todos hemos nacido a la fe gracias a Israel, y reconocer nuestra voz en ese gemido del profeta: "ojalá rasgaras el cielo y bajaras" (Is 64,1)! Así suplica el corazón oprimido por la tristeza; así ruega el alma agotada en su esfuerzo; así se queja el hombre que ha palpado su límite y sabe que nada le queda, sino el horizonte de Dios.

Y lo más hermoso de esa oración es que sabemos que fue y que será escuchada. Fue escuchada ya, podemos decir si miramos el misterio del Verbo Encarnado, pues él rasgó los cielos y bajó. Pero además será escuchada una vez más, la última y gloriosa, la definitiva, cuando el Cristo glorioso rompa los cielos, cuando los recoja como una tienda (cf. Is 40,22) y brille su majestad infinita el día último. Esta súplica, pues, abre el adviento de modo único, porque recuerda la primera venida y ya anuncia la segunda.

Todo el adviento, que hoy empieza, va sellado con un tono de bendita esperanza. La esperanza no es simple ilusión; la esperanza no es simple proyecto. La esperanza nace en el borde mismo en donde nace también la desesperanza, esto es, allí donde sabemos cruda y profundamente qué somos y qué quisiéramos ser. Desde la conciencia viva de lo que somos aprendemos la distancia hasta lo que queremos ser. Las dos cosas se perciben en la meditación de Isaías: "nosotros pecábamos y te éramos siempre rebeldes" (Is 64,5): esto es lo que hemos sido; "sin embargo, Señor, tú eres nuestro Padre" (Is 64,8): este es el principio de lo que podemos ser.

De aquí aprendemos varias cosas. Primera: nuestro pecado no destruye nuestro vínculo con Dios. Pecadores como somos, seguimos estando en sus manos, y él sigue siendo nuestro alfarero. El pecado no anula la soberanía de Dios. Segunda: el que nos hizo es quien sabe rehacernos. No haya para el hombre otra alternativa, porque no hay otro Creador. Tercera: si en las consecuencias del pecado aparece la justicia, en la victoria sobre el pecado brillan la gracia y la misericordia. Por ello no hay modo de escapar de Dios. Isaías pide la llegada de Dios; Jesucristo nos advierte sobre lo incierto de su visita. Todo sucede como diciendo que mientras unos sufren porque se retrasa otros viven como si nunca fuera a venir el Señor. Así vive el mundo, y las dos cosas las hemos visto una y otra vez.

Feliz y bendecido tiempo de adviento.

STEWARDSHIP

FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

*"Be watchful! Be alert!
You do not know when the time will come."*

Mark 13:33

We all take things for granted. In particular, we take time for granted. We make our lives too busy. We plan our days, weeks, months, even years in advance. Remember, our time on earth is a gift. None of us knows how long we will be here. Start today and begin thanking God for each and every day. Take time in silence, every day, and listen to how God is calling you right now to help build His kingdom on earth.

Letter from Bishop Larry on November 20, 2023

Beloved Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

As we approach the season of gratitude, our hearts swell with thanks for the blessings of faith, family, and friendships. Yet, amidst our celebration, we're mindful of the profound needs among our sisters and brothers in Maui. The wildfire that swept through Lahaina claimed more than a hundred lives, leaving devastation in its wake. Miraculously, Lahaina's Maria Lanakila Church was spared, but most of the school was destroyed. The wildfire left 84 Sacred Hearts students and 12 staff members without homes. However, these setbacks did not stop the school from functioning. Maria Lanakila Parish's Sacred Hearts Mission Church in Kapalua immediately offered its parish space for classrooms and a safe space for keiki.

On All Souls Day, I stood amidst the Sacred Hearts School community, witnessing resilience in laughter and dedication to relief, response and recovery efforts. Blessing newly constructed tent classrooms, I saw a community rising from the ashes, embodying hope and determination. In gratitude, I share a heartfelt video capturing this journey: <https://hicathcomfdn.org/SHSTuition>. It begins with a song, a beautiful prayer saying "Thanks be to God" in multiple languages. The story illustrates a profound faith, resilience, and aloha as Sacred Hearts School emerges as a beacon of hope. While temporarily located at the mission church, Sacred Hearts School is working diligently to find a "temporary-permanent" home for students with more space for classrooms and a playground until the school can rebuild in Lahaina in 3-5 years. Funds have already been raised for these efforts but impacted students need tuition assistance so they can keep coming to Sacred Hearts School. This is not just a story of survival; it's one of thriving and rebuilding Lahaina's future. So, we have established the Sacred Hearts School Tuition Assistance Fund with the Hawaii Catholic Community Foundation with a goal of $4 million (we have already raised $1 million) so each child who is in need of tuition assistance can be assured of a Catholic education while their families rebuild their lives. I appeal to your grateful and generous hearts to support the tuition assistance fund, ensuring that education's light continues to shine for those in need. To contribute, visit <https://tinyurl.com/MauiSHSFund> or scan the QR code on the back of this letter.

As we enter the season of giving, may the inspiring story of Sacred Hearts School move your grateful hearts. Supporting the Sacred Hearts School Tuition Assistance Fund makes you a beacon of hope and a partner in rebuilding lives and futures.

In closing, I echo sentiments shared during the Maui Eucharist: "In our collective prayers, we ask for strength, resilience, and healing for the fire victims. May our faith guide us as we navigate challenges, knowing with God's grace, all is possible." Mahalo to all who have been so generous with time, talent, and treasure in helping this community recover. It's inspiring to see the work and hope so many not only talk about, but live.

May your generosity and faith in action amplify the whispering voice of Christ's constant presence of loving care and may God's abundant blessings be upon you and your loved ones. With a grateful heart and a prayer for continued witness to Jesus. Mahalo.

May your generosity and faith in action amplify the whispering voice of Christ's constant presence of loving care and may God's abundant blessings be upon you and your loved ones. With a grateful heart and a prayer for continued witness to Jesus. Mahalo.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Larry Silva
