

October 20, 2002
Prophetic Word

Dave Sutherland - Dayton

Chris Clark

God has been showing me a tool box all night long. Just as Keith was having prophetic revelation through scriptures as the couples were coming up I kept looking for where the tool box fit. I got to tell you it didn't fit any of the couples that come up. But, I believe it fits you in the blue shirt right there. Could you come please. This is quite a tool box too I need to tell you already. You don't belong here do you? I mean you belong here, that's not a statement. Okay. Alright. From Dayton. We talked at camp didn't we? Okay. Well. What I saw over you brother was a tool box. You're a carrier of a tool box and somehow I get the sensing that you've walked into a totally impossible situation. Where I mean it all came crashing down. You actually sat there with one hand on the tool box looking over this incredible mess and you said there's just absolutely no way that this is all going to get put back together. I just really believe that the Lord would have you to know that you carry a tool box. In fact to keep you balanced brother you probably ought to have one in each hand. But this tool box has the goods to rebuild from the ashes and from dust and from the debris of what has crashed. Okay. So you are where you're suppose to be alright. It's not a call to leave the door, slam it. Well the door fell down too. So somebody has got to stay and put it back on its hinges. In your tool box are the tools necessary. You know and I know what those tools are. They aren't necessarily a hammer and nails because I don't think anything in the natural fell down. I think it was in the spiritual it all crashed. So what's going to need to be rebuilt are things of the spirit. That's going to be the word. You're going to bring out the word and you're going to begin to shape and fashion and cut away and rebuild. You're going to begin to be a man of prayer and you're going to begin to pray over this thing. You're actually going to begin to pray over this thing. You're actually going to see. You know it's almost one of those Ezekial things with the valley of the dry bones. As you speak and pray and prophecy, you're just going to see the bones come back to life and the flesh come back on and you're going to begin to see the restoration of all things. Alleluia.