SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
JOHN THE BAPTIST'S TESTIMONY TO JESUS

"Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world." John 1:29

✠ From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners of Sacred Heart,

Our Parish Pastoral Council had a guest speaker at our January 5th meeting. Michael VanZandt Collins from the West Village Neighborhood Association came to us with an opportunity to partner in order to maintain and beautify Poplar Street Park (245 Poplar Street). In 1893, it was the site of Sacred Heart Church until our current church was completed. In the 1950's, the Archdiocese gifted the parcel to the City of Boston Parks Department. Most recently, the neighborhood association had a successful clean up of the area. Along with their efforts, the Boston Food Forest Coalition is interested in transforming part of the land into an edible park which would be maintained by community members for community members. Their plans could provide us with activities for parishioners and members of our school community to help foster a deeper respect for our environment. It may also give us a greater insight to Catholic Social teaching as found in Pope Francis' encyclical "Laudato Si." I will keep you informed about how we can aid their efforts.

Peace,

Father Clary

Del Escritorio del Párroco ✠

Queridos Parroquianos del Sagrado Corazón,

En la reunión del 5 de enero de nuestro Consejo Pastoral Parroquial, contamos con un orador invitado. Michael VanZandt Collins, de la Asociación de Vecinos de West Village, nos presentó la oportunidad de colaborar para el mantenimiento y embellecimiento del Parque Poplar Street (245 Poplar Street). En 1893, este lugar albergó la Iglesia del Sagrado Corazón hasta la finalización de nuestra iglesia actual. En la década de 1950, la Arquidiócesis donó el terreno al Departamento de Parques de la Ciudad de Boston. Recientemente, la asociación de vecinos llevó a cabo una exitosa jornada de limpieza en la zona. Además de sus esfuerzos, la Coalición de Bosques Comestibles de Boston está interesada en transformar parte del terreno en un parque con plantas comestibles, que sería mantenido por y para los miembros de la comunidad. Sus planes podrían brindarnos actividades para los feligreses y miembros de nuestra comunidad escolar, fomentando así un mayor respeto por el medio ambiente. También podría ofrecernos una mejor comprensión de la Doctrina Social de la Iglesia, tal como se expone en la encíclica "Laudato Si'" del Papa Francisco. Les mantendré informados sobre cómo podemos apoyar sus iniciativas.

La Paz,

Padre Clary

Support the Collection for the Church in Latin America

Next week we will take up the Collection for the Church in Latin America. For many in Latin America and the Caribbean, a rising secular culture, difficult rural terrain, and a shortage of ministers all present obstacles to practicing the faith. Your support for the collection provides lay leadership training, catechesis, priestly and religious formation, and other programs to share our Catholic faith with those who long to hear the Good News of Christ. Apoye a la Iglesia en América Latina

La próxima semana realizaremos la Colecta para la Iglesia en América Latina. Para muchos en América Latina y el Caribe, una creciente cultura secular, terrenos rurales difíciles y una escasez de ministros son obstáculos para practicar la fe. Su apoyo a la colecta proporciona capacitación para el liderazgo laico, la catequesis, la formación para sacerdotes y religiosos y otros programas para compartir nuestra fe católica con aquellos que anhelan escuchar la Buena Nueva de Cristo. Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

The end of the Christmas season was marked by the Baptism of the Lord, January 12 this year, and we have now moved into the season of Ordinary Time. Despite its name, there is nothing inherently "ordinary" about this season of the year. The term ordinary is just used because the weeks are numbered in an ordinal way—the Third Week in Ordinary Time, the Fourth Week in Ordinary Time, and so on.

Liturgical calendars were not always structured this way. In the earliest days of the Church, every Sunday was treated as an Easter Sunday—there was no distinction in the season for Christmas, Lent, and Easter. While we no longer treat every Sunday as Easter Sunday, "Sunday is the pre-eminent day for the liturgical assembly" (CCC, no. 1167). In addition to participating in the Eucharistic liturgy, in Ordinary Time, Sundays remain days that should be set aside for prayer, reflection, rest, and time with family.

Prayers for Life

The over 56 million abortions since the 1973 decisions of Roe v. Wade and Doe v. Bolton reflect with heartbreaking magnitude what Pope Francis means by a "throwaway culture." However, we have great trust in God's providence. We are reminded time and again in Scripture to seek the Lord's help, and as people of faith, we believe that our prayers are heard.

And while, on June 24, 2022, the Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health Organization decision overturned Roe v. Wade, right now state and federal laws, in many instances, are still hostile to preborn children. So, great prayer and advocacy is still very needed.

On January 22 (or January 23, when January 22 falls on a Sunday), the Church recognizes the Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children. As individuals, we are called to observe this day of prayer for the full restoration of the legal guarantee of the right to life and of penance for violations to the dignity of the human person committed through acts of abortion.

WORD & DEED

~James Gaffney
© Pilot Bulletins

A popular television commercial not only highlights people helping someone, but how others who witness their kindness are inspired to do the same. As one person helps another, still others spread the kind acts that have a ripple effect of touching many lives and changing social standards and concerns.

Good deeds are an example of how we put into action our belief that everyone is made in the image and likeness of God. We recognize in them the Divine imprint of the Creator who brands each of us with an indelible mark of dignity and destiny. So it is no surprise that John should recognize Jesus as the chosen One, the Anointed, the Messiah. He sees with the eyes of faith the mark that sets Jesus apart and he announces it to all who would listen.

Our life of faith includes not only bold acts of kindness, but also the bold announcement that Jesus is present among us as Lord and Messiah. We cannot hide our faith, nor deny we have it. Our words and deeds must both proclaim our faith and hope that Jesus is Lord.

Un popular anuncio de televisión no solo muestra a personas ayudando a otros, sino también cómo quienes presencian su bondad se inspiran a hacer lo mismo. A medida que una persona ayuda a otra, otras más difunden estos actos de bondad, creando un efecto dominó que impacta muchas vidas y transforma las normas y preocupaciones sociales.

Las buenas acciones son un ejemplo de cómo ponemos en práctica nuestra creencia de que todos hemos sido creados a imagen y semejanza de Dios. Reconocemos en ellas la huella divina del Creador, que nos marca a cada uno con una señal indeleble de dignidad y destino. Por eso no sorprende que Juan reconociera a Jesús como el Elegido, el Ungido, el Mesías. Con los ojos de la fe, ve la señal que distingue a Jesús y la anuncia a todos los que quieran escuchar.

Nuestra vida de fe incluye no solo actos de bondad valientes, sino también la valiente proclamación de que Jesús está presente entre nosotros como Señor y Mesías. No podemos ocultar nuestra fe ni negarla. Nuestras palabras y acciones deben proclamar nuestra fe y nuestra esperanza en que Jesús es el Señor.
