✠ From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners of Sacred Heart,

As the U. S. Bishops have consecrated our nation to the Sacred Heart of Jesus so we have been doing so here in our parish. Many have prayed the novena to the Sacred Heart in person or by Zoom each day and others have made their own personal prayers. With a procession and bilingual Mass on Friday evening we have shown our neighbors our faith in the Lord. This weekend we will again honor that many parish volunteers who give of themselves in a Christ like manner. I encourage you to take this a step further. Since we are celebrating the 250th Anniversary of our Nation's Independence, I ask that you consider offering 250 minutes (four hours and ten minutes) of your valuable time to the Sacred Heart of Jesus by prayer and action. There is no due date like a work project or a school assignment. Let this opportunity be another way of sharing your faith with your fellow parishioners. A suggestion would be to read and pray over Pope Leo XIV's encyclical "Magnifica Humanitas" which considers human dignity in the time of artificial intelligence. You can easily look it up on the internet. If there is enough interest amongst parishioners I am thinking of offering several evenings of discussion about during the summer or the fall. I'll keep you posted!

Peace,

Father Clary

Del Escritorio del Párroco ✠

Queridos Parroquianos del Sagrado Corazón,

Así como los obispos de los Estados Unidos han consagrado nuestra nación al Sagrado Corazón de Jesús, nosotros hemos hecho lo mismo aquí en nuestra parroquia. Muchos han rezado la novena al Sagrado Corazón, ya sea en persona o a través de Zoom, y otros han realizado sus propias oraciones personales. Mediante una procesión y una misa bilingüe el viernes por la tarde, hemos manifestado nuestra fe en el Señor ante nuestros vecinos. Este fin de semana honraremos nuevamente a los numerosos voluntarios de la parroquia que se entregan a los demás siguiendo el ejemplo de Cristo. Los animo a dar un paso más allá. Dado que celebramos el 250.º aniversario de la independencia de nuestra nación, les pido que consideren dedicar 250 minutos (cuatro horas y diez minutos) de su valioso tiempo al Sagrado Corazón de Jesús, tanto en oración como en acción. No hay una fecha límite estricta, como la que tendría un proyecto laboral o una tarea escolar; permitan que esta oportunidad sea una forma más de compartir su fe con sus compañeros feligreses. Una sugerencia sería leer y meditar en oración la encíclica del Papa León XIV, «Magnifica Humanitas», que aborda la dignidad humana en la era de la inteligencia artificial; pueden encontrarla fácilmente en Internet. Si hay suficiente interés entre los feligreses, estoy pensando en organizar varias sesiones de diálogo durante el verano o el otoño. ¡Los mantendré informados!

La Paz,

Padre Clary

JESUS IS WAITING

"Could you not keep watch with me for one hour?"

— Matthew 26:40

He is truly present in the Blessed Sacrament.

He waits for you with love, no matter where you are in your life.

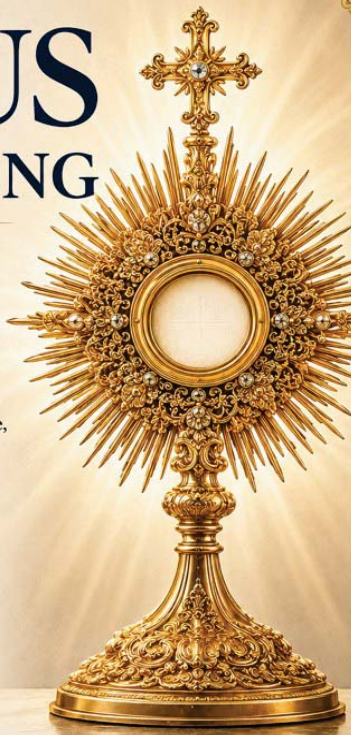

Come to give thanks, to ask for help, or simply to be with Him.

You don't need many words. Your presence is enough.

Even a few minutes with Jesus can make all the difference in your day.

JESÚS TE ESPERA

"¿No pudieron velar una hora conmigo?"

— Mateo 26,40

Él está realmente presente en el Santísimo Sacramento.

Te espera con amor, sin importar cómo llegue tu corazón.

Ven a darle gracias, a pedir ayuda o simplemente a estar con Él.

No necesitas muchas palabras. Tu presencia es suficiente.

Aunque sean pocos minutos, nunca saldrás igual después de estar con Jesús.

Fatherhood and the Sacredness of Human Life

The upcoming celebration of Father's Day is a fitting time to examine the irony that in our current culture, fatherhood is rarely mentioned. When mentioned at all, fathers are mocked or portrayed negatively. Some movies and stories downplay the role of the father in a child's life, yet simultaneously portray the child as suffering from the father's inability to live up to that role.

In reality, the nobility and significance of fatherhood remain a powerful witness in the lives of those who have had the opportunity to grow up with a present and caring father. And there are, of course, profound stories and testimonies to counter the culture's defeatist attitude towards fatherhood.

Alongside a mother's unique and nurturing role, the father also has a vital part to play in safeguarding the sacredness of new human life and in forming the younger generation. The father's special role in protecting and defending both mother and child helps ensure the stability and healthy development of the whole family.

Pope John Paul II wrote of the importance of fatherhood in his Apostolic Exhortation, Familiaris Consortio:

"A man is called upon to ensure the harmonious and united development of all the members of the family . . . by exercising generous responsibility for the life conceived under the heart of the mother, by a more solicitous commitment to education, a task he shares with his wife, by work which is never a cause of division in the family but promotes its unity and stability, and by means of the witness he gives of an adult Christian life which effectively introduces the children into the living experience of Christ and the Church" (no. 25).

The dedication and commitment of husbands and fathers to their family's needs to be affirmed and supported if we are to build a culture of life.

June is also the month of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. How fitting is Christ's example of sacrificial love when we recall how he gave his life for his bride, the Church. The extent to which he pours out his heart for humanity shows the ultimate model of a man of compassion and quiet strength. We can see concrete examples of this in the Gospel, in the way he treated the Samaritan woman with dignity and in the way he welcomed the little children who wanted to meet him.

When a baby is growing in the womb, the first vital organ that develops is the heart, which starts beating by about 21 days. What does this say about the human person? It is almost as if God honors the capacity to love by giving the heart supremacy even in the physical development of the human being. While not physically connected to newly developing life in the same way as the mother, the father need not be excluded from this beautiful mystery. During this month of June, may all hearts look to the Sacred Heart as a source of inspiration, and may all husbands and fathers be renewed in their calling to build up the culture of life, starting in their own families.

Father's Day

God our Father, in your wisdom and love you made all things. Bless our father. Let the example of his faith and love shine forth. Grant that we, his family, may honor him always with a spirit of profound respect. Grant this through Christ our Lord.

Calling all those who like to knit or crochet !
 The Parish Health Ministry is running low on Prayer Shawls. We are looking for folks to help replenish our supply so that we can give them to those in need.

What is a prayer shawl?

"The makers of these special, hand-knit or crochet shawls pray before the shawl is made, pray while working on the shawl, and pray after it is finished. When completed, the shawl is given to someone experiencing a particularly difficult time and in need of prayer. Shawls may go to someone suffering from a serious illness or to one who has perhaps experienced a grievous loss. Prayers that accompany the shawls ask God to help renew the body as well as the spirit. They ask him to restore the recipient to hope, strength, and healing." Each shawl comes with a special prayer card that helps to remind the recipient of God's love always.

If you are interested or would like more information, please reach out to the Parish Health Ministry by calling the Rectory 617-325-3322 or e-mail us at shphealthministry@gmail.com

We can do no great things; only small things with great love.

MISSION STATEMENT

As a united family in Christ, our parish has its roots in the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Our diverse parish welcomes all with open arms to celebrate our faith with love, joy, and compassion. Through prayer we strive to work humbly with a great acceptance and understanding of our neighbors and how best to serve those in need. Guided by the Holy Spirit we pray to grow together and live charitably by the Lord's teachings.
