SACRED HEART PARISH

JUNE 21, 2026

ROSLINDALE, MA

✠ From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners of Sacred Heart,

Last weekend's Gospel detailed Jesus' command that we "ask the Master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest." This points to the ongoing need for priests and religious. Every few years we are blessed to have a seminarian spend the summer or the academic year with us to teach in religious education and find out about the reality of parish life. Two years ago, Christopher Aubrey joined us and he truly found our parish enlightening and a vital part of his formation process. On Saturday, June 13th he was ordained a priest for the Diocese of Worcester, MA. Please keep him in prayer as his ministry begins.

Peace,

Father Clary

Del Escritorio del Párroco ✠

Queridos Parroquianos del Sagrado Corazón,

El Evangelio del fin de semana pasado detallaba el mandato de Jesús de «pedir al Dueño de la mies que envíe obreros a su mies». Esto pone de relieve la necesidad constante de sacerdotes y religiosos. Cada cierto tiempo tenemos la bendición de contar con un seminarista que pasa el verano o el año académico con nosotros para impartir clases de educación religiosa y conocer de cerca la realidad de la vida parroquial. Hace dos años, Christopher Aubrey se unió a nosotros y consideró que nuestra parroquia fue una experiencia enriquecedora y una parte fundamental de su proceso de formación. El sábado 13 de junio fue ordenado sacerdote para la Diócesis de Worcester, Massachusetts. Por favor, ténganlo presente en sus oraciones al comenzar su ministerio.

La Paz,

Padre Clary

We can do no great things; only small things with great love.

JESUS IS WAITING

"Could you not keep watch with me for one hour?"

— Matthew 26:40

He is truly present in the Blessed Sacrament.

He waits for you with love, no matter where you are in your life.

Come to give thanks, to ask for help, or simply to be with Him.

You don't need many words. Your presence is enough.

Even a few minutes with Jesus can make all the difference in your day.

Natividad de Juan Bautista

SIGLO I
DÍA DE FIESTA: 24 DE JUNIO

En los Evangelios, Juan, pariente de Jesús por medio de sus madres, predicaba el arrepentimiento y bautizaba para preparar la llegada del Mesías. Esta fiesta marca su excepcional nacimiento ya que Zacarías, su padre, era un sacerdote de avanzada edad e Isabel, su madre, era anciana e infértil. El ángel Gabriel, a través de una visión, le anuncia ese nacimiento a Zacarías y él duda creerle y enmudece hasta ocho días después del nacimiento de Juan. Luego, Zacarías, en un bello cántico en el primer capítulo del Evangelio de Lucas, proclama que Juan “será llamado Profeta del Altísimo”. Juan murió decapitado y eso se conmemora el 29 de agosto, Juan, quien es el santo patrón de Canadá y de Jordania, es también patrón de Florencia y de los Caballeros Hospitalarios de San Juan.

Nativity of John the Baptist

FIRST CENTURY
FEAST DAY: JUNE 24

In the Gospels, John, a kinsman of Jesus through their mothers, preached repentance and baptized to prepare for the Messiah's coming. This feast marks his exceptional birth to the aged priest Zechariah and the equally aged and barren Elizabeth. The angel Gabriel announces his birth in a vision to Zechariah, who hesitates in believing and is struck mute until eight days after John's birth. Then, Zechariah, in a beautiful canticle that ends the first chapter of Luke's Gospel, proclaims that John “will be called prophet of the Most High.” John's eventual beheading is commemorated with an Aug. 29 feast. A patron saint of Canada and Jordan, John is also the patron of Florence and the Knights Hospitaller of St. John.

Calling all those who like to knit or crochet ! The Parish Health Ministry is running low on Prayer Shawls. We are looking for folks to help replenish our supply so that we can give them to those in need.

What is a prayer shawl?

"The makers of these special, hand-knit or crochet shawls pray before the shawl is made, pray while working on the shawl, and pray after it is finished. When completed, the shawl is given to someone experiencing a particularly difficult time and in need of prayer. Shawls may go to someone suffering from a serious illness or to one who has perhaps experienced a grievous loss. Prayers that accompany the shawls ask God to help renew the body as well as the spirit. They ask him to restore the recipient to hope, strength, and healing." Each shawl comes with a special prayer card that helps to remind the recipient of God's love always.

If you are interested or would like more information, please reach out to the Parish Health Ministry by calling the Rectory 617-325-3322 or e-mail us at shphealthministry@gmail.com

Saints Thomas More and John Fisher

D. 1535

FEAST DAY: JUNE 22

Saints Thomas More and John Fisher were Renaissance men. Talented and energetic, they contributed to the humanist scholarship of early modern England. More wrote theological and philosophical treatises, while making a career as a lawyer and government official. Bishop John Fisher worked as an administrator at Cambridge, confronted the challenge Martin Luther presented to Christian Europe, and most importantly served as Bishop of Rochester. As a bishop, he is notable for his dedication to preaching at a time when bishops tended to focus on politics. These men were brilliant. They both corresponded with Erasmus, who helped Bishop Fisher learn Greek and Hebrew, and who also famously referred to More as a man omnium horarium, a man of all seasons.

Above all their accomplishments, these men bore witness to a deep faith in Christ and his Church. More considered joining religious life and was assiduous in his devotional practices. As a married man, he committed himself wholly to his vocation as a father. At the time, disciplinary practices with children tended to be severe, but More's children testify to his warmth, patience, and generosity. St. John Fisher was a model shepherd and demonstrated remarkable humility. He remained in the small Diocese of Rochester his entire episcopal ministry, devoting himself to his local church rather than seeking promotion to a larger, more powerful diocese.

More and Fisher are well-known for opposing King Henry's divorce. Ultimately, it was their refusal to sign an oath of supremacy that led them to be excuted. King Henry VIII claimed to be the supreme head of the Church in England, asserting sovereign power over English Christians. Neither Fisher nor More could abide this claim, and their steadfastness to their consciences put them in conflict with the king. They were convicted of treason.

When More made his way to the gallows, he is said to have stated, "I die the King's good servant, but God's first." Both More and Fisher were patriots. They never rose up to incite rebellion or foment revolution. They were not traitors. But when the law of the king came into conflict with the law of Christ, they chose Christ. These men gave their lives for the freedom of the Church and for freedom of conscience. They bear witness to the truth that no government can make a claim on a person's soul.
