Light your lamps and be like servants who await their master's return from a wedding.

For at an hour you do not expect,
the Son of Man will come.

Luke 12:35,40

✠ From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners of Sacred Heart,

Every month the Pope has an intention for us to pray about. One can easily look it up on the Vatican website while each church sacristy has a small book called an "Ordo." This is a guide which tells us which particular Mass should be said that day, whose feast it may be, how the Liturgy of Hours are to be observed and lists priests and deacons from local dioceses who have died. For August, the Pope's intention is for mutual coexistence. Our prayer united with Leo XIV and our brothers and sisters throughout the world should be for "societies where coexistence seems more difficult might not succumb to the temptation of confrontation for ethnic, political, religious or ideological reasons." The altercations mentioned can take place anywhere on the planet and can range from drone warfare to a heated discussion on a city street. What can help us all not yield to the temptation to confront is to deepen our relationship with the Lord by a healthy prayer life and to serve His people with kindness and charity. And if by chance temptation leads one to sin, please know that the Lord in His abundant mercy is waiting to shower you with His grace and forgiveness in the sacrament of penance and reconciliation.

Peace,

Father Clary

Del Escritorio del Párroco ✠

Queridos Parroquianos del Sagrado Corazón,

Cada mes, el Papa tiene una intención por la que orar. Se puede consultar fácilmente en la página web del Vaticano, y cada sacristía tiene un pequeño libro llamado el "Ordo". Este guía nos indica qué Misa debe celebrarse ese día, de quién es la festividad, cómo debe celebrarse la Liturgia de las Horas y enumera los sacerdotes y diáconos de las diócesis locales que han fallecido. Para agosto, la intención del Papa es por la convivencia mutua. Nuestra oración, unida a la de León XIV y a nuestros hermanos y hermanas de todo el mundo, debe ser para que "las sociedades donde la convivencia parece más difícil no sucumban a la tentación del enfrentamiento por motivos étnicos, políticos, religiosos o ideológicos". Los altercados mencionados pueden ocurrir en cualquier lugar del planeta y abarcan desde una guerra con drones hasta una acalorada discusión en la calle. Lo que puede ayudarnos a no ceder a la tentación del enfrentamiento es profundizar nuestra relación con el Señor mediante una vida de oración sana y servir a su pueblo con bondad y caridad. Y si por casualidad la tentación le lleva a uno a pecar, sepa que el Señor en Su abundante misericordia está esperando colmarlo de Su gracia y perdón en el sacramento de la penitencia y la reconciliación.

La Paz,

Padre Clary

BLESSED THE PEOPLE THE LORD HAS CHOSEN TO BE HIS OWN.

Calling all those who like to knit or crochet! The Parish Health Ministry is running low on Prayer Shawls. We are looking for folks to help replenish our supply so that we can give them to those in need.

We are looking for your input on your health concerns so that we may provide education and offer support and access for special needs such as autism, blindness, deafness, mobility issues, and health resources. Health needs assessments continue to be available at the back of the church or on the parish website. Please return paper versions to the baskets in the back of the church. Next blood pressure screening will take place on Sunday September 7, 2025 at 11am in the Lower Church. Meeting of the Health Ministry to follow at 12pm also in the Lower Church.

For more information e-mail the group at shphealthministry@gmail.com.

RESTORE SUNDAY

The Third Commandment calls us to keep holy the Sabbath day.

After the Christian religion obtained its freedom under the Roman emperor Constantine in the fourth century, civil laws were passed to limit unnecessary work on Sunday. The greatest beneficiaries were the poor who otherwise worked long hours every day of the week. Centuries later, at the height of the Industrial Revolution, sweatshops were established in large cities where men, women, and children worked fifteen hours a day, often on Sundays.

Today in some places in our country, those seven-day sweatshops have returned. This is both an injustice to the poor and also an abuse of Sunday rest, and we need to find ways to correct this. "God's action is a model for human action. If God 'rested and was refreshed' on the seventh day, man too ought to 'rest' and should let others, especially the poor, 'be refreshed'" (CCC, no. 2172).

Millions of people in our culture deny themselves a day of rest. Exceptions are made for those who must work for the public good, but this is not the problem. Too many people are just as busy and exhausted on Sundays as they are on weekdays. For many, Sunday is neither a day of rest nor a time for worship.

Sunday rest puts our whole life into perspective. It helps us stand back from material concerns and reflect on spiritual values. Sunday rest allows us to look again at the wonders of nature and experience the harmony and peace placed there by God. It is a precious time for rediscovering the fundamental goodness of creation as it comes from God's providential hand.

Sunday also provides the opportunity for families to be together and to engage in common activities. Weekday schedules often require members of the family to spend much time away from each other. Participation in the Eucharist and other activities can renew the bonds of love and unity.

Athletic events for young people have sometimes interfered with the Sunday Mass observance of Catholic youth. Until recently, Sunday morning was a sacred time in most communities and neighborhoods, set aside for church attendance. Before this is abandoned on behalf of sports activities or other unexpected intrusions, it is hoped that Catholic pastors and other Christian religious leaders, with the support of their congregations, may prevail on sponsors of athletic events to adapt their programs to the religious needs of youth.

A proper observance of Sunday can thus be a prophetic stance in our culture, offering a witness that is both wholesome and healing for the great number of people who need to be less frantic and more willing to let go and settle down to what best corresponds to their spiritual nature and yearnings.
