Fourth Sunday of Advent

Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and they shall name him Emmanuel.

Matthew 1:23

✠ From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners of Sacred Heart,

As we make final preparations for our Christmas Masses here at Sacred Heart and you are doing last minute things for family and friends it will be important to set aside some quiet time during these remaining days of Advent. Reflect on your innermost longings for hope, peace and joy which will lead to a meaningful Christmas Season. God's love for us is not limited to just one day just as the birth of our Lord is contained to just one day. There will be some who say words to the effect that they are glad that Christmas is over once we reach December 25th. However, many more solemn feasts of our faith await us such as the Feast of the Holy Family, Mary the Mother of God, Epiphany and the Baptism of the Lord. Please invite all family, friends and neighbors to join with us in prayer during these sacred days.

Peace,

Father Clary

Saint John, the Apostle

The Call of the First Disciples

Matthew 4:18-22

As Jesus was walking by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon who is called Peter, and his brother Andrew, casting a net into the sea; they were fishermen. He said to them, "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men." At once they left their nets and followed him. He walked along from there and saw two other brothers, James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They were in a boat, with their father Zebedee, mending their nets. He called them, and immediately they left their boat and their father and followed him.

John and his brother, James, Galilean fishermen called the "sons of thunder," were chosen to be among the Twelve Apostles. John was with Jesus at the Transfiguration, in the Garden of Gethsemane, and on Calvary. It was to this "beloved disciple" that Jesus entrusted his mother's care. John evangelized in Ephesus (Turkey), was exiled to the island of Patmos, and according to tradition lived to be 100 years. John and his community of followers are credited with writing the fourth Gospel, three epistles, and the Book of Revelation.

Del Escritorio del Párroco ✠

Queridos Parroquianos del Sagrado Corazón,

Mientras ultimamos los preparativos para nuestras Misas de Navidad aquí en la Parroquia del Sagrado Corazón y ustedes se ocupan de los últimos detalles para sus familiares y amigos, es importante que dediquen un tiempo de tranquilidad durante estos días restantes de Adviento. Reflexionen sobre sus anhelos más profundos de esperanza, paz y alegría, que les conducirán a una Navidad llena de significado. El amor de Dios por nosotros no se limita a un solo día, al igual que el nacimiento de nuestro Señor no se reduce a un solo día. Habrá quienes digan que se alegran de que la Navidad haya terminado una vez que llegue el 25 de diciembre. Sin embargo, nos esperan muchas otras fiestas solemnes de nuestra fe, como la Fiesta de la Sagrada Familia, María Madre de Dios, la Epifanía y el Bautismo del Señor. Les invitamos a que inviten a sus familiares, amigos y vecinos a unirse a nosotros en oración durante estos días sagrados.

La Paz,

Padre Clary

San Juan el Apóstol

Del santo Evangelio según san Mateo 4, 18-22

Una vez que Jesús caminaba por la ribera del mar de Galilea, vio a dos hermanos, Simón, llamado después Pedro, y Andrés, los cuales estaban echando las redes al mar, porque eran pescadores. Jesús les dijo: "Sígueme y los haré pescadores de hombres". Ellos inmediatamente dejaron las redes y lo siguieron. Pasando más adelante, vio a otros dos hermanos, Santiago y Juan, hijos de Zebedeo, que estaban con su padre en la barca, remendando las redes, y los llamó también. Ellos, dejando enseguida la barca y a su padre, lo siguieron.

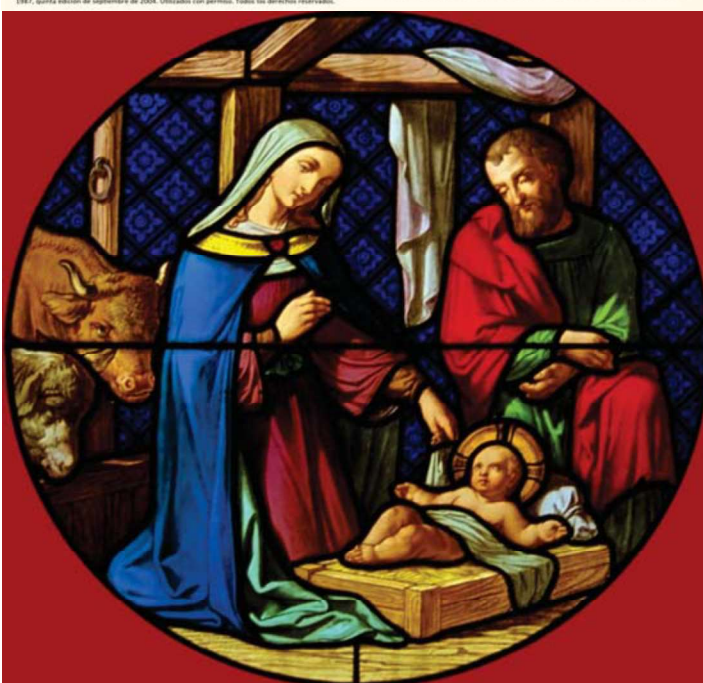

Juan y su hermano, Santiago, pescadores galileos, llamados los "hijos del trueno", fueron escogidos para ser parte de los Doce Apóstoles. Juan estuvo con Jesús durante la Transfiguración, en el Huerto de Getsemani, y en el Calvario. Fue a este "discípulo bien amado" a quien Jesús encargó el cuidado de su madre. Juan evangelizó en Efeso (Turquía), fue exilado a la isla de Patmos y, de acuerdo a la tradición, vivió hasta la edad de 100 años. A Juan y a su comunidad de seguidores se les acredita la escritura del cuarto Evangelio, tres epístolas y el Libro del Apocalipsis.

December 2025: Food and gathering safely

Although we are beyond the pandemic days of Christmas dinner over zoom, it is still important to make sure we are protecting the most vulnerable people in our lives from illness. If you will gather with immunocompromised folks or if there will be elderly people at your holiday gathering, consider testing prior to attending. Consider staying home if you are sick. Especially if you have a fever or respiratory symptoms. If you do become sick, the best way to prevent severe illness is to make sure you are vaccinated for COVID-19, flu and RSV (if you meet criteria). As always, practicing good hand hygiene is the best way to prevent the spread of illness.

If you do plan to gather with loved ones, there will likely be food preparation involved. Here are some hints from the CDC for keeping food safe and preventing illness. Foodborne germs can lead to illness (food poisoning), hospitalization, and death. Follow these key steps to prevent food poisoning - clean, separate, cook, and chill

Clean: always wash your hands and surfaces often especially after handling raw meat, poultry, seafood and eggs. Use hot soapy water to clean utensils, cutting boards, dishes and counter tops. Rinse fresh fruits and vegetables under running water.

Separate: don't cross-contaminate, Raw meat, chicken and other poultry, seafood, and eggs can spread germs to ready-to-eat food unless you keep them separate. When grocery shopping, keep raw meat, poultry, seafood, and their juices away from other foods. Keep raw or marinating meat, poultry, seafood, and eggs separate from all other foods in the refrigerator. (Store raw meat, poultry, and seafood in sealed containers or wrap them securely so the juices don't leak onto other foods.) Use one cutting board or plate for raw meat, poultry, and seafood and a separate cutting board or plate for produce, bread, and other foods that won't be cooked. Raw chicken is ready to cook and doesn't need to be washed first. Washing these foods can spread germs to other foods, the sink, and the counter and make you sick.

Cook to the right temperature: Food is safely cooked when the internal temperature gets high enough to kill germs that can make you sick. The only way to tell if food is safely cooked is to use a food thermometer. You can't tell if food is safely cooked by checking its color and texture. Use a food thermometer to ensure foods are cooked to a safe internal temperature. When reheating, use a food thermometer to make sure that microwave food reaches 165°F.

Chill: refrigerate promptly. Bacteria can multiply rapidly if left at room temperature or in the "Danger Zone" between 40°F and 140°F. Never leave perishable food out for more than 2 hours (or 1 hour if exposed to temperatures above 90°F). Keep your refrigerator at 40°F or below and your freezer at 0°F or below, and know when to throw food out before it spoils. If your refrigerator doesn't have a built-in thermometer, keep an appliance thermometer inside it to check the temperature. Package warm or hot food into several clean, shallow containers and then refrigerate. It is okay to put small portions of hot food in the refrigerator since they will chill faster. Refrigerate perishable food (meat, seafood, dairy, cut fruit, some vegetables, and cooked leftovers) within 2 hours. If the food is exposed to temperatures above 90°F, like a hot car or picnic, refrigerate it within 1 hour. Thaw frozen food safely in the refrigerator, in cold water, or in the microwave. Never thaw food on the counter because bacteria multiply quickly in the parts of the food that reach room temperature. For more details go to CDC website - About Food Safety | Food Safety | CDC

Nativity Crèche

In its present form, the custom of displaying figures depicting the birth of Christ owes its origin to St. Francis of Assisi, who made the Christmas crèche for Christmas Eve of 1223.

The blessing of the Christmas manger or nativity scene may take place on Christmas Eve or at another time:

Lord, bless all who look upon this manger; may it remind us of the humble birth of Jesus, and raise our thoughts to him, who is God-with-us and Savior of all, and who lives and reigns forever and ever. Amen.

LET US PRAY FOR THOSE WE KNOW AND LOVE WHO SHARE IN CHRIST'S SUFFERING THROUGH ILLNESS:

Martina Aguguo - Lucy Algere Knox - Yaritza Baerga - Danielle Broderick - Francisca Cruz - Tara Daniels - Christine Carroll - Kathleen McKeown - Gabriela Gonzalez - James Gordon - Kathy Hardiman - Chet Havey - Richard Fraser - Andres Hernandez - Ileana Thompson - Anthony Iarrobino - Christopher Keegan - Carmine Lavoie - Robert Lynch - Barbara McAweeney - Jennifer McGoldrick - Helen Kearns - Moffie - Bridget Mulkerrin - Rhonda Owens - Jahaidy Nova - Marie Poledo - Monica Santiago - Evelyn Shanahan - Midge Whelan - Jason Lamb - David Rosario - Elaido Orozco - May Christ heal all their ills.

Let us pray for those who have served and are serving in our armed forces, that their suffering and service lead to a peace-filled world, especially for our parishioners:

Samantha Stuke, Chad Courville, O'Neil Joseph, John E. Lee, III, Billie O'Brien, Brian Gillis, Isaac Buck, and Alex Alcántara.

May Christ protect them and bring them back home safely.
