"Jesus came and stood among them and said to them, 'Peace be with you.'" JOHN 20:19

Are you a good steward by making people feel welcome? When you meet someone new, like a new neighbor, a new work colleague or a new parishioner, do you make them feel at home? When we make people feel welcome, we make them feel like they are included instead of being excluded. We are made for relationships - with God and each other. When you see yourself as a beloved son or daughter of God, you tend to see others the same way, too - just as God, Our Father, sees us.

PRIME TIMERS

Divine Mercy Sunday

Message of the Week

On Divine Mercy Sunday we hear Jesus' words, "Peace be with you." He's saying to Peter and the other apostles, "Do not fear. I know you have let me down. Peace be with you. Are you ready to pick up and make a journey with me? Just as I forgive you, I give you authority to forgive men's sins in my name."

The Divine Mercy enables us to overcome fear - the fear of judgment and condemnation. It is easy to think God wouldn't help us because of the mess we've made. But the great news is - no matter what you've done - Jesus wants you to come to Him for help just as you are!

No one knew this better than Peter. He had betrayed Jesus in ways that you and I could never do. After all, he heard Jesus' teaching, saw his miracles and was privileged to be with him at overwhelming moments such as the Transfiguration.

Yet Peter turned his back on Jesus, "I do not know the man." You and I have sinned, we have denied Jesus, but not to the degree of Simon Peter. But Jesus says to him, "Peace, I want you to begin a fresh journey with me."

By his Divine Mercy, Jesus invites us to take the first step in the journey to hope. Let me conclude with Peter's own words: Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who in his great mercy gave us a new birth to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. Amen.

Order of Initiation of Adults

The Order of Christian Initiation of Adults is the journey by which adults are given the opportunity to explore, learn, and commit to fully becoming a member of our Catholic Community. You are invited to participate with your questions, your insights, and your faith story in a warm, accepting setting.

This journey is open to adults who were never baptized, baptized in another Christian tradition, or who were baptized in the Catholic faith but were never fully initiated with the Sacraments of Confirmation and Holy Eucharist (Communion).

An age-appropriate program is available for children and teens with study, learning, and activities scheduled to fit with their school life and commitments.

If you are interested, or would like additional information, please contact the Parish Office at 856-589-3366.
