16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a man who sowed good seed in his field...He who sows good seed is the Son of Man, the field is the world, the good seed the children of the kingdom." - MATTHEW 13:24, 37-38

As children of God, we are all "good seeds". We are blessed by God with the potential to accomplish much good in the world. We fulfill God's plan when we spend time in prayer every day, use our skills to help others and share our financial gifts to help build God's kingdom on earth. Through our stewardship of gratitude and generosity we sow "good seeds" on earth and ultimately help each other get to Heaven!

O.C.I.A. Order of Initiation of Adults

The Order of Christian Initiation of Adults is the journey by which adults are given the opportunity to explore, learn, and commit to fully becoming a member of our Catholic Community. You are invited to participate with your questions, your insights, and your faith story in a warm, accepting setting.

This journey is open to adults who were never baptized, baptized in another Christian tradition, or who were baptized in the Catholic faith but were never fully initiated with the Sacraments of Confirmation and Holy Eucharist (Communion).

An age-appropriate program is available for children and teens with study, learning, and activities scheduled to fit with their school life and commitments.

If you are interested, or would like additional information, please contact the Parish Office at 856-589-3366.

SUMMER

Saints Peter and Paul Parish

Message of the Week

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Cycle A

The readings for the Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time invite us to contemplate the patience, mercy, and quiet strength of God. In the Gospel from Matthew, Jesus offers the parable of the wheat and the weeds; a story that speaks directly to the tension we feel when confronted with the imperfections of the world and the imperfections within our own hearts.

The servants in the parable are quick to react. They see the weeds and immediately want to pull them out. Their instinct is understandable. But the master responds with surprising restraint. "Let them grow together until harvest." He knows that pulling the weeds too soon may damage the wheat. His patience is not weakness; it is wisdom.

This is a portrait of God's heart. He sees the weeds in our lives. He sees our sins, our failures, and our inconsistencies, yet He does not discard us. He allows time for growth, conversion, and healing. God's patience is always purposeful. He waits not because He is indifferent, but because He is merciful.

The Book of Wisdom reinforces the truth that God judges with clemency and governs with leniency. God's patience with us should become the model for our patience with others. We live in a world that often demands instant results and quick fixes. We want people to change immediately, to act better, to be better. But the Lord reminds us that growth takes time, and that His grace is always at work quietly, often invisibly.

The parable also challenges us to trust that God is ultimately in control. The field belongs to Him. The harvest belongs to Him. The final judgment belongs to Him. Our role is not to uproot but to cultivate, to nurture, to encourage what is good, to persevere in faith even when we see imperfections around us. God will sort everything out in His time.

Each of us is a field where wheat and weeds coexist. We may be tempted to despair over the weeds we notice in ourselves. But Jesus urges us to trust that the good He has planted is stronger than the evil that tries to choke it. His grace is patient, persistent, and powerful.

Today's Gospel invites us to rest in God's patient mercy and to extend that same mercy to others. The Lord is not finished with us, and He is not finished with the quiet, hidden work of grace that continues to grow toward the day of the harvest.

Rest in Christ and pray this prayer each morning, "Jesus, meek and humble of heart, teach me to rest in you today."

Blessings,
Deacon Anthony
