Sexual abuse is a crime that must be reported, investigated and responded to so that victims are protected and those who commit abuse are removed from ministry.

A special toll-free number has been established to help callers report cases of sexual abuse by priests, deacons, religious, employees and/or volunteers. In accord with state law, cases of child sexual abuse are reported to the New Jersey Division of Child Protection and Permanency.

For information or to inquire about counseling and support services, contact the Victims Assistance Coordinator at 1-800-964-6588.

Saints Peter and Paul Parish

Message of the Week

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's Gospel, Jesus gives one of the most comforting invitations in all of Scripture:

"Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest."

Life places many burdens on our shoulders—family worries, financial pressures, sickness, disappointments, guilt, and uncertainty about the future. We often try to carry these burdens alone, believing that asking for help is a sign of weakness. But Jesus tells us that true strength comes from bringing our burdens to Him.

The first reading from Zechariah presents a King who comes not with power and violence but with humility, riding on a donkey. This is the kind of Savior we have—a Lord who understands our struggles because He walks beside us. He does not crush the weak; He lifts them up.

In the second reading, St. Paul reminds us that we are called to live according to the Spirit, not according to the flesh. The Holy Spirit gives us the strength to overcome fear, selfishness, and discouragement. When we allow the Spirit to guide us, our burdens become lighter because we no longer carry them alone.

Jesus also says, "Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart." A yoke is not something that removes work; it helps carry the load. When we are yoked to Christ, He shares our burdens and gives us the grace to face every challenge with hope and peace.

Today, let us ask ourselves: What burden am I carrying that I have not yet entrusted to Jesus? Whether it is anxiety, resentment, grief, or fear, the Lord invites us to place it in His hands.

As we gather around the Eucharistic table, let us come to Jesus with open hearts. He alone can give the rest that the world cannot offer—a peace that remains even in the midst of life's difficulties.
