Using six short videos from Bishop Barron, we'll investigate the paths that reveal how to experience the joy that comes from a Christ Centered life. The paths are: Finding the Center, Knowing You're a Sinner, and Realizing Your Life is Not About You. And best of all, we'll learn some practical approaches to enhance our mutual journey toward the ultimate goal of being a saint! It's our greatest calling and what our creator desires of us.

Vacuuming and Dusting Ministry

This ministry is responsible for vacuuming and dusting the interior of the church, family room and confessionals. A team of volunteers will be scheduled on a monthly basis to work in pairs (couples, friends etc.) to vacuum and dust the church. This is a great spiritual opportunity for spending some quiet time with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament while ministering to this sacred space.

Please contact the parish office for further details 856-589-3366.

Volunteers Needed

Sexual abuse is a crime that must be reported, investigated and responded to so that victims are protected and those who commit abuse are removed from ministry.

A special toll-free number has been established to help callers report cases of sexual abuse by priests, deacons, religious, employees and/or volunteers. In accord with state law, cases of child sexual abuse are reported to the New Jersey Division of Child Protection and Permanency.

For information or to inquire about counseling and support services, contact the Victims Assistance Coordinator at 1-800-964-6588.

THE DIOCESE OF CAMDEN

Saints Peter and Paul Parish

Message of the Week

14th Sunday In Ordinary Time, Cycle C

Over the last several weeks we celebrated the feasts of the Ascension, Pentecost, the Most Holy Trinity, Corpus Christi, and Saints Peter and Paul. Now we find ourselves settling back into Ordinary Time where we return once again to reading from the Gospel of Luke. But before you get too comfortable, please recognize that today we are being presented with an enormous challenge; Jesus is asking us to go out and share His message with others.

For most of us, sharing our faith with others can be pretty scary. So just imagine how Jesus' followers felt when, as we hear in the Gospel, He appoints 72 others to go out ahead of Him to every town He was going to visit. Then Jesus tells them "Go on your way; behold, I am sending you like lambs among wolves. Carry no money bag, no sack, no sandals; and greet no one along the way." The challenge just got a whole lot scarier, didn't it? Over 2000 years ago Jesus recognized that speaking about our faith would make us feel like lambs among wolves. Some will say that it's even more difficult today, but it's a mission that we must embrace.

In 2013, one of Pope Francis' first acts was to write an Apostolic Exhortation titled Evangelii Gaudium, which translates to The Joy of the Gospel. In the opening paragraph Pope Francis tells us that "The joy of the Gospel fills the hearts and lives of all who encounter Jesus. Those who accept His offer of salvation are set free from sin, sorrow, inner emptiness and loneliness. With Christ, joy is constantly born anew." His letter makes it clear that there is great joy and peace that comes from a relationship with Christ. In the relationship we experience a joy and peace that is not meant to be kept to ourselves. Rather, it is a joy and peace that we should share with others, because if we truly love our family, friends, and all of God's creation, why would we want to keep knowledge of Him to ourselves?

I'm sure that the 72 were scared when they left on their journey. But the Gospel tells us that they returned rejoicing! And that's the way that we also return when we share our faith with others. We rejoice because we are sharing the peace and joy of Christ.

Who are the 72 that were sent out? We really don't know but just imagine that you were one of them. Imagine that Jesus asked you to bring His joy to others. Although you are a little scared and nervous you do what He asks. Imagine that you brought the Gospel message to your children who have left the church, or your family members who have no faith to call their own, or even to a stranger who you can see is sad and struggling with life. Now imagine that you returned and tell Jesus what you did and together you rejoice in your good work. As Pope Francis taught us, "For if we have received the love which restores meaning to our lives, how can we fail to share that love with others."

Certainly this week's Gospel challenges us to share our faith with others, and certainly it's a little scary, but as Jesus told us so many times, "Fear not" because Our Lord will strengthen and support you every step of the way.

Wishing you a joyful journey as Missionary Disciples.
