FEAST OF SAINTS PETER AND PAUL

Sunday, June 29th, is the Feast of Saints Peter and Paul, our Patron Saints.
On that day, we will be combining the 10:00 and 11:30 Mass into a single Mass at 11:00 am.

After Mass will be our Parish Picnic. It's going to be a fun celebration with food, games, and fun for the entire family. Bishop Williams will be joining us, and everyone is invited to come and enjoy!

To help make the day a success, here are some ways you can help:

- It's a BYOC event ... Bring Your Own Chair so you can sit and enjoy the festivities.
- Want to provide food? We have a food sign-up board in the foyer for food donations. Delivery instructions will be provided. You may also make a monetary donation if you wish.
- After weekend Mass, we will be selling our commemorative t-shirts. They are only $15 each and all net proceeds will go to the parish to help support our parish activities.
- Finally, to make it more fun for the kids, we are in need of a face painter and a balloon animal artist. If you know of anyone with those skills who would like to donate an hour of their time to our parish, please share that information with the Parish Office.

WE ARE REALLY EXCITED AND HOPE YOU CAN JOIN US
ON SUNDAY THE 29TH AFTER THE 11:00 AM MASS!

Saints Peter and Paul Parish

My friends in Christ,

A while back, a parishioner whom I have known for a long time, asked, "Hey were you extra hungry today? I saw you looking around the altar for more Communion." I have had the question asked other ways. You may have seen me "surveying" the corporal (the white cloth that the Eucharist is kept upon) for fragments of the Blessed Sacrament and upon finding any, picking up consuming them. This might seem curious to visitors of other denominations or religious beliefs.

Back in 2023, I was working as a Chaplain, bringing Holy Communion to the sick and hospitalized. Many days I would come to our tabernacle and take upwards of 40 pieces of the Blessed Sacrament. One day in November of that year, while attempting to give communion to a patient who was in isolation for a serious bacterial infection, the pix (the small container that Eucharistic Minister uses to carry Holy Communion) containing about 15 hosts, slipped from my gloved hand and fell to the floor. The pix broke open and all of the Eucharist fell on the floor under the patient's bed. I have often times picked up a host that has fallen on the floor at church and at other locations. Due to the nature of this hospital room, I knew the hosts could not be distributed to other patients or consumed by me, nor could they be returned to the Parish. Knowing the protocol for properly and reverently disposing of the Blessed Sacrament I drove quickly home. I, literally wept as I carefully dissolved all of the hosts and buried them as indicated by the Church rubrics (rules). I have been a Catholic my whole life, receiving all 7 Sacraments, but I don't believe I ever felt such a deep, agonizing ache, as I did destroying His sacred Body.

I have always known and had the belief what the Catechism of the Catholic Church states:

1324 The Eucharist is "the source and summit of the Christian life." The other sacraments, and indeed all ecclesiastical ministries and works..., are bound up with the Eucharist and are oriented toward it. For in the blessed Eucharist is contained the whole spiritual good of the Church, namely Christ himself..."

After the event I described, I had a new appreciation of His sacrifice, His gift to us in giving us His body. With that in mind, I offer a quick review of the proper way to receive His Body for this week's The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ:

In the United States,...the Bishops determined that:

- "[t]he norm... is that Holy Communion is to be received standing,...and that a bow is the act of reverence made by those receiving...
- Those who receive Communion may receive either in the hand or on the tongue (and) if Communion is received in the hand, the hands should first of all be clean. If one is right handed the left hand should rest upon the right. The host will then be laid in the palm of the left hand and then taken by the right hand to the mouth. If one is left-handed this is reversed.
- It is not appropriate to reach out with the fingers and take the host from the person distributing.
- The person distributing Communion says audibly to each person approaching, "The Body of Christ." This formula should not be altered, as it is a proclamation which calls for a response of faith on the part of the one who receives. The communicant should audibly respond, "Amen," indicating by that response his or her belief that this small wafer of bread, (the wine in this chalice) are in reality the body and blood of Christ the Lord.

May the Lord who not only loved us enough to die for us, but gave us the gift of His body and blood so we always had Him with us, continue to bless us with His peace, love and charity.

God Bless You!
