Saints Peter and Paul Parish

The Pastor's Corner

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As we approach the end of another liturgical year, the Church invites us to celebrate the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. This beautiful celebration reminds us of a powerful truth: Jesus Christ is not simply a King we honor on Sunday; He is the King who desires to reign in our hearts every day.

When we think of a king, we often imagine someone seated on a magnificent throne, surrounded by wealth, power, and authority. But Jesus presents us with a very different image of kingship. His throne is the Cross, His crown is made of thorns, and His greatest power is love. He does not rule through fear or force, but through mercy, forgiveness, humility, and sacrifice.

In 1925, Pope Pius XI established this feast at a time when the world was struggling with the consequences of war, political division, and growing secularism. More than a century later, its message remains just as relevant. Our world continues to experience violence, division, uncertainty, and a hunger for peace. More than ever, we need to allow Christ to reign in our lives, our families, our communities, and our world.

But what does it really mean to proclaim Jesus as our King? It means allowing His teachings to guide our decisions, choosing forgiveness over resentment, kindness over indifference, and love over hatred. It means recognizing His presence in the poor, the lonely, the suffering, and those who need our compassion. Above all, it means remembering that Christ cannot truly reign in our hearts if we refuse to let His love transform the way we treat one another.

As your pastor, I invite each of us to reflect on one simple question: Does Jesus truly have first place in my life? It is easy to call Him our King with our lips, but the real challenge is to recognize His kingship through our daily actions.

As we conclude this liturgical year, we also stand at the threshold of a new spiritual journey. Next Sunday, we will begin the holy season of Advent, a season of waiting, hope, renewal, and preparation for the coming of our Savior. This year, I would like to invite our entire parish family to reflect together on a very special theme:

“A New Beginning: Let Christ Be Born in Us Again.”

Why this theme? Because I believe that every one of us needs a new beginning at some point in life. We carry our struggles, disappointments, worries, broken relationships, and sometimes even regrets from the past. Yet God never stops offering us the opportunity to begin again.

As we gather around our tables with family and friends, let us remember that gratitude is more than saying "thank you." It is a way of living. A grateful heart recognizes God's goodness even in difficult moments and becomes more generous toward others.

Let us also remember those who may spend Thanksgiving alone, those who are grieving the loss of loved ones, and those who are struggling to provide a meal for their families. May our gratitude inspire us to share our blessings with those in need.

On behalf of our parish family, I wish each of you and your loved ones a joyful, peaceful, and blessed Thanksgiving.

May Christ our King reign in your hearts, bless your homes, strengthen your families, and prepare each of us for a beautiful new beginning.

Viva Cristo Rey!

With prayers and blessings,

Fr. Yvans Jazon
