Reflection for the 32nd Sunday In Ordinary Time

None of us knows for certain when the Lord will come back. All we know from scripture is that he promised to return one day. The Gospel reminds us of two very important points; the need to use the time he has given us wisely, and to make wise decisions so that when we do meet our savior, we will be prepared to enter the kingdom of heaven.

In our Gospel today we hear about the 5 wise virgins and the 5 foolish virgins. To put the situation into context, it's helpful to understand the culture of Jesus' time. In our culture, it's not unusual for the bride to be a few minutes later for her wedding. But in Jesus time it would not have been unusual for the groom to be the one who is late, but not even for a few minutes, it could be for hours or days. The slow nature of travel, the need to address customary requirements such as the dowry, often left everyone in the dark about the exact day and hour of the wedding. And because of that, the bridesmaids were tasked with keeping vigil day and night so that when they saw the bridegroom approaching, they could greet him and alert others that the wedding feast was about to begin.

The bridesmaids in the parable were given an opportunity to be ready for the wedding, but five of them did not bring enough oil. They had an opportunity during the day to get a supply of oil but they didn't bother. Then when the groom arrived for the wedding it was too late. They were unprepared and would miss the wedding banquet. But the other 5 virgins, they were wise, they planned properly and they were able to join into the banquet.

How do we get wisdom like the 5 virgins? What tools has God given us that will help us to make wise decisions in our lives?

Our first reading from the book of wisdom provides us with the answer. The reading tells us that wisdom is found by those who seek it. That gives me great hope, because the gift of wisdom is offered to each one of us if only we look for it.

And what is this special wisdom that is so freely offered to us? God's gift of wisdom is what the Holy Spirit does within us so that we can see everything through God's eyes. Wisdom teaches us to see with God's eyes, to feel with God's heart, and to speak with God's words. Wisdom is the power enabling us to live meaningful lives. Wisdom helps us to lead godly lives in the face of evil in the world. The wise virgins keep the torch lit waiting for the Lord. As Christians, we can see more when aided by the light of Christ. Believers and unbelievers experience the same world of joy and suffering, life and death; but the believers sees more in these events… the believer perceives Gods Presence!

Every day we are faced with choices, and there are always consequences associated with those choices. Some of the bridesmaids in the parable squandered the opportunity they had during the day to get some oil, and the consequence was that they missed the wedding feast. The others were wise, they prepared themselves properly and they received their reward.

How much time do you and I have left? We really don't know. What we do know is that we must prepare and be ready.

May each of us seek the wisdom to help us see things through Jesus' eyes, and may each of us prepare ourselves for His coming by shining His light into the darkness around us.

God bless you.
