WORLD MENTAL HEALTH & HOPE SUNDAY

Next weekend, in connection with World Mental Health Day, our parish will observe Mental Health & Hope Sunday.

Many People around us quietly carry anxiety, depression, grief, loneliness, family difficulties, trauma, stress, or other emotional burdens. Sometimes these struggles are visible; very often, they are not. As a Catholic community, we want every person to know:

You are not alone.

Your life has dignity and value.

It is okay to ask for help.

Faith and professional mental-health care are not opposed to one another. We can pray, receive the grace of the Sacraments, seek the support of our family and parish community, and also receive appropriate professional help when we need it.

May Saints Peter and Paul Parish always be a community where people feel welcomed, heard, respected, supported and loved.

There is always hope. Let us walk with one another in faith, compassion, and love.

Please bring your pets, on a leash or in a cage, to the lawn in front of the Parish Center.

PRIME TIMERS

Sts Peter and Paul Parish

The Prime Timers will be meeting on October 13th at 12:00 PM in the Parish Center.

Our theme this month is Halloween. Costumes are not necessary - Halloween attire is welcome (tee shirt, headbands, etc.) Flu shots will be available before the meeting.

Rosemary O'Dea will be our guest speaker from Rutgers Extension Service. Her topic will be Dementia.

Our November meeting will be Friendsgiving Potluck. When you bring your food, please use disposable pans. Sign-up sheets will be available at our October meeting. Prime Timers is providing the turkey.

Our Christmas Party will be Thursday, December 10th, at Scarpinato's. Tickets will be available in October. Tickets are $35. Please make checks payable to St. Peter and Paul Senior Group. Last date to purchase tickets is November 20th.

All seniors in the parish are welcome to join our Christmas Party and our group.

Saints Peter and Paul Parish

27th Sunday in Ordinary Time Cycle A

Today's readings speak to us about God's vineyard.

In the first reading, the prophet Isaiah presents a beautiful vineyard carefully prepared by its owner. He dug it, cleared it of stones, planted the best vines, and waited for good grapes. But instead, it produced wild grapes. The vineyard represents the people of God. The owner had done everything out of love, but the people failed to respond.

In the Gospel, Jesus tells the parable of the wicked tenants. The owner of the vineyard entrusted it to tenants, but when he sent servants to collect the fruits, they rejected them. Finally, he sent his own son, and they killed him.

The message is clear: God has given each of us a vineyard. Our life is a vineyard. Our family is a vineyard. Our parish and community are vineyards entrusted to us. God has given us faith, time, talents opportunities, and countless blessings. One day, the Lord will ask us: "What fruits have your produced?"

God does not expect us simply to occupy space in His vineyard. He expects fruits of love, kindness, forgiveness, justice, prayer, and service.

Sometimes we behave like the wicked tenants. We begin to think that everything belongs to us - our life, our possessions, our time. We forget that we are only stewards, not owners. Everything we have is a gift from God.

St. Paul, in the second reading, gives us the secret of producing good fruit: "Whatever is true, honorable, just, pure, lovely, gracious...think about these things." And above all, he tells us not to be anxious, but to bring everything to God in prayer.

So today, let us ask ourselves: What kind of grapes is my life producing? Sweet grapes or wild grapes?

May the Lord find in us the fruits of a holy life. Let us remember: God has planted us in His vineyard, cared for us with love, and entrusted us with His gifts. May we never disappoint the One who has done so much for us, but bear abundant fruit for His glory and for the good of others.
