Autumn

Saints Peter and Paul Parish

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time - Cycle A

A father once asked his two sons to go and work in his vineyard. The first son immediately said, “No, I will not go.” But later he thought about his father’s request, changed his mind, and went. The second son said, “Yes, Father, I will go.” But he never went.

Jesus asks a simple question: “Which of the two did his father’s will?”

The answer is obvious: the first son. This little parable contains a very important message for our Christian life. God is not looking merely for beautiful words. He is looking for a heart that is willing to change and a life that puts faith into action.

The first reading from Ezekiel gives us the same message. God tells the sinner who turns away from sin and begins to do what is right that he will live. What a beautiful message of hope! Our past does not have to determine our future. We may have made mistakes. We may have failed God. We may have said “no” to Him many times. But God always gives us the grace to change direction.

Sometimes we are like the first son. We say “no” through our weaknesses, our selfishness, our anger, or our sins. But if we repent and return to God, our “no” can become a “yes.” At other times, we may be like the second son. We say all the right things: “Lord, I love you. Lord, I believe in you.” But our actions may not correspond to our words.

St. Paul gives us the perfect example in today's second reading: Jesus humbled himself and became obedient to the Father, even to death on a cross. Jesus did not simply speak about love—He lived love. He did not simply speak about forgiveness—He forgave.

He did not simply speak about sacrifice—He gave Himself.

So today, the Lord asks each of us: What is my “yes” to God worth if I do not live it? Perhaps there is someone we need to forgive. Perhaps there is a good deed we have been postponing. Perhaps there is a sin we need to leave behind. Perhaps God is asking us to return to prayer. The good news is that it is never too late to change our answer to God.
