

Who Do You Say I Am?

Who Do You Say I Am? Companion Guide

Core Questions

1. St. Augustine wrote, “Our hearts are restless, O Lord, until they rest in you”. What ways have you searched for meaning in life? Did you come away fulfilled? Did you come away empty? How did St. Augustine’s heart find rest?
2. History has shown that the shroud had been protected through wars and fires. Would this be the case if it didn’t have the testimony of being connected to Christ? Why or why not?
3. Skeptics would say that the shroud was created in Europe in the middle ages. However there is evidence that points to an origin in Jerusalem. What is it and why is it important?
4. The film describes the Shroud as a picture of what happens to Jesus during his passion. How does that make you feel? What response do you have to what Jesus did for you? Who do you say He is?

Young Adult

This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins.-
Matthew 26:28

How do the blood stains on the shroud lend credence to its authenticity?
Some refer to the shroud as a fifth Gospel. How is this so?

Men’s Group

What are some of the factors that would lead to a false reading on the carbon dating test?

Some scientists say that it would take 8,000,000,000 watts of energy to create the image on the shroud. How does this add to the evidence of the shroud being the burial cloth of Christ?

Women’s Group

What is some of the evidence that points to the shroud being authentic?

Bishop Eulalius had a vision of a woman. This woman gave him specific instructions. What were they?

