I don't know what your destiny will be, but one thing I know; the only ones among you who will be really happy are those who will have understood how to serve.

We are one in this space, in this building, in this community, in this world. We are one through the generations, through song and word, through worship. We are one just as we are. All are welcome here.

Acknowledgement of the Land

Laura J. Turnbull, Penticton, B.C.

Many thousands of years ago, Indigenous peoples lived, worked, played, and worshipped on this land. Over time, settlers from other lands came, sometimes sharing, often destroying, the relationship Indigenous peoples had with the water, land, and skies, with their Elders, families, culture, and faith. Today, as Settlers, we are repenting and relearning how to care tenderly and respectfully for all that God has given both Indigenous people and Settlers. We give thanks to the Chippewa of the Thames First Nation, Delaware Nation at Moraviantown, the Munsee Delaware Nation and Oneida Nation of the Thames for their faithful stewardship of the land and the lessons they continue to teach.
