Acknowledgement of the Land

A territorial acknowledgement seeks to acknowledge the Indigenous peoples with historical ties to a particular territory. To that end, we would like to acknowledge the Anishinaabe, Chonnoton, Haudenosaunee, and Lenape Peoples.

An acknowledgement also recognizes the treaty relationships between settler and Indigenous peoples that were entered into in respect of that land. We are on territory that is the subject of McKee Treaty #2. It was signed in 1790, by John McKee (for the Crown), and Village and War Chiefs of Ottawa, Chippawa, Potawatomy and the Huron Indian Nation of Detroit. Did you know that Dutton did not officially become a town until nearly a century later, in 1885?

As Christians, we also offer our gratitude for the opportunity to share the land with Indigenous peoples as members of a Church that has a conflicted history with Indigenous peoples, and we commit ourselves to the ongoing process of reconciliation. We are grateful for the opportunity to gather on this territory and work in this community, and we commit ourselves to the work of reconciliation with Indigenous peoples.

The Pastoral Care Team

Mary Bol is the contact person for cards. If you need to get in touch with a member of the Pastoral

Care Team, please reach out to the members:

Memory Board

Do you have a special person in mind that has contributed to or is giving back to our church and community? A loved one whose memory you want to honour?

Consider putting their name on our Memory Board.

All contributions to this Church fundraiser are tax-deductible.

See Darlene Ford for more information.

Yumm!

Each week, one or two people volunteer to supply "treats" to our Coffee and Conversation which is held after each Sunday Service.

You'd be surprised at how much a simple tray of cookies, for example, can contribute to a lively conversation. All are welcome, please join us.

Search Team Training

Volunteers needed for ad hoc Search Team

If you would be interested in sitting on this committee, please speak to Jackie.

Training is available and is mandatory.

Has your church begun looking for a new Minister? Have you formed a team? If yes, training is mandatory.

Training can happen in two ways:

- With your liaison
- Online with Micol Cottrell, Pastoral Relations Minister. If you have a liaison, please invite them to attend with you. Online training is two hours.

Have you given up your land line in favour of a cell phone?

Please call the office to share your phone numbers.
(519-762-3821)

We are always looking for photos for the Bulletin and the Sunday PowerPoint Announcements.

Please send to:
