Acknowledgement of the Land

A territorial acknowledgement seeks to acknowledge the Indigenous peoples with historical ties to a particular territory. To that end, we would like to mention the Anishinaabe, Chonnoton, Haudenosaunee, Huron, and Lenape Peoples.

An acknowledgement also recognizes the treaty relationships between settler and Indigenous peoples that were entered into in respect of that land. We are on territory that is the subject of McKee Treaty #2. It was signed in 1790, by John McKee (for the Crown), and Village and War Chiefs of the Nations of the Ottawa, Chippawa, and Potawatomy and the Huron Indians Nations of Detroit. Did you know that the Dutton did not officially become a town until nearly a century later, in 1885?

As Christians, we also offer our gratitude for the opportunity to share the land with Indigenous peoples as members of a Church that has a conflicted history with Indigenous peoples, and we commit ourselves to the ongoing process of reconciliation. We recognize the enduring presence of Indigenous peoples connected to and on this land. We are grateful for the opportunity to gather on this territory and work in this community, and we commit ourselves to the work of reconciliation with Indigenous peoples.

Mission and Service Report 2024 Transform lives. Inspire meaning and purpose. Build a better world.

In 2024, The United Church of Canada committed just over 23 million to the work of the church, supporting those in need in Canada and around the world. 84% was spent within Canada and 16% was spent globally. Much of the increase in the amount spent in Canada is due to a grant of $474,000 given to “Bringing the Children Home”.

- 27.7% Embolden Justice
- 22.0% Invigorate Leadership
- 23.0% Journeying Indigenous Pathways
- 19.8% Strengthen Invitation (Growth)
- 4.6% Nurture the Common Good
- 2.9% Deepen Climate Integrity

2024 saw the continuation of ongoing conflicts like the war in Ukraine and the one in Israel and Palestine. Your support has enabled our partners to continue to support those most affected by war and those who are displaced as refugees. In 2024, approximately $416,000 was sent to support the work of our partners and bring aid to those affected. Families and children who are fleeing war are provided with food, clothing, shelter, medical supplies, and safe housing. Your Christian compassion is making this possible.

If anyone wants to play their instrument, Eva just asks that you call her ahead of time.

Please bring a lawn chair if possible, and be ready to Sing!
Light refreshment are provided.

All are Welcome!

God willing we will have a great turnout!
