Acknowledgement of the Land:

Dutton is a Treaty community situated on the traditional territory of the Anishinaabe, Chononton, Haudenosaunee, Huron, and Leni-Lunaabe. Elgin and London Township are on territories that are the subject of the Two Row Wampam, 1613, Dish with One Spoon, 1690, London Township Treaty #6, 1796, McKee Treaty #2, 1790, and Longwoods Treaty #21/22, 1819-1822.

From Susan Lukey, Editor, Gathering Worship, United Church of Canada: "Some may ask why we have an acknowledgement of territory in a worship service. We include them because the church, our church, was complicit in the system of residential institutions and the plan to destroy Indigenous cultures, faiths, languages, and peoples."

A special Anniversary Service will be held on Sunday, September 21st at 2:00 p.m.

The Guest Speaker will be the Rev. Tim Raeburn-Gibson, Minister at Westmount Presbyterian Church in London.
A time of fellowship and refreshment will follow the service.

Beginning Sunday, August 31st, and continuing until October 19th, the V&S Team will be collecting good used clothing, especially winter gear, as well as cash donations, for the Grace Café.

Sunday, October 19th, 2025 is World Food Sunday. The Visioning and Stewardship Team will be leading the Service. Their guest speaker will be from Grace Café. On that Sunday, all donations will be presented for use by Grace Café.

Cafe Open

The Grace Café is a charity organization, open till 1:00 or 2:00 p.m., six days a week, and is located at 323 Talbot Street, St. Thomas.

Ginny started it and works with a large pool of volunteers. For those early risers, a gift card to Tim Horton's is given where people can get a muffin and coffee. The Café provides a noon meal and, after lunch, packaged food is available for "take out".

The Café has a ministry there to pass out warm clothing, (mitts, hats, socks, some coats, etc.).

On Saturdays, they open up for a big beautiful brunch. Ginny often has entertainment at the brunches. She also makes a point of having small cakes on hand to celebrate birthdays. She feels everyone should have a chance to feel special.

For the past three years they have partnered with The Annex, a drug addiction resource. The Annex streamlines the process for getting into detox or rehab. They are determined to reach all people who are in need of their services. They pay for all the fees associated with counselling.

The Café accepts donations of all kinds; cash, food donations, clothing, and $5.00 Tim's Gift Cards. Thankfully, when they've had equipment break down, community partners have stepped forward for repairs or replacement.

All are WELCOME.
