Acknowledgment of the Territory

We are grateful for the land that gives us food, shelters birds and animals, stores water, and provides all of us with space to live.

We remember the people who lived on and cared for this land before our ancestors came to this land; we commit to taking care of this land – keeping it nourished, cleaning up after ourselves and others, and not spoiling it by taking only what we need. We promise to share the land and its resources by protecting life, nature, and each other, as Jesus has called us
to. Amen.

Of course I can hit that note ... just listen.
Can I join the Choir now?
I hear it's fun.

A Christmas Prayer

We thank thee, O God, for the return of the wondrous spell of this Christmas season that brings its own sweet joy into our jaded and troubled hearts.

Forbid it, Lord, that we should celebrate without understanding what we celebrate, or like our counterparts so long ago, fail to see the star or to hear the song of glorious promise.

As our hearts yield to the spirit of Christmas, may we discover that it is Thy Holy Spirit who comes — not a sentiment, but a power — to remind us of the only way by which there may be peace on the earth and good will among men.

May we not spend Christmas, but keep it, that we may be kept in its hope, through Him who emptied Himself in coming to us that we might be filled with peace and joy in returning to God. Amen.
