Over the years, our relationship with Indigenous peoples has not always been life-building. Sometimes we sought to live in respectful relationship with the First Peoples. Too often, we have ignored, mistreated, and destroyed them, exhibiting racism. Today, we light our candle of reconciliation, realizing we have a long way to journey in understanding our role in building right relations.

The pastor gathered the children for their special time in the Easter morning service. "Who can tell me the story of Easter," he asked.

A little boy raised his hand and said, "Easter is when God rolled away the big stone where the soldiers were guarding, and Jesus came out, bright and early Easter morning."

The pastor beamed. "That's right. Jesus rose from the grave." "Yes," the boy said. "And if Jesus sees his shadow, we will have six more weeks of winter!"

“If you have a question about the Ten Commandments, press ‘7’.”

“If you want to know about how to make wine from water, press ‘8’.”

“If you have some complaint about the liturgical changes, press ‘9’.”

The boy listened closely as the rabbi read the Bible.
“May I ask a question?” he asked.
“Sure. Go ahead. Ask your question,” replied the rabbi.
“Well, the Bible says that the children of Israel crossed the Red Sea – the children of Israel built the temple – the children of Israel did this, and the children of Israel did that.
“Yes, that’s right,” said the rabbi. “What’s your question?”
“Didn’t the grownups ever do anything?”
