Acknowledgement of the Land

Prepared by Rev. Emma Seamone

As we prepare for worship, take a moment to think of where you are. Acknowledge to yourself where and with whom you live. Think about the relationship you do or do not have with the land, the people, the treaties. Think about what your responsibilities are to the land, the people, and the treaties.
How will you honour that, today, and every day?

Received in the morning mail:

And Jesus said, "Who do you say I am?"
And they answered: "You are the eschatological manifestation of the ground of our being, the kerygma in which we found the ultimate meaning of our interpersonal relationship."
And Jesus said, "What?"
And God said:
"My name is not I Was."
"My name is not I Will Be."
"My name is I Am."

We are one in this space, in this building, in this community, in this world. We are one through the generations, through song and word, through worship. We are one just as we are. All are welcome here.
