

ERIK L. ANDRIEUX, ESQ. is a business and corporate healthcare attorney with a focus on dental practice, small business and real estate transactions. He has earned a reputation with his clients and peers as a deal facilitator by combining his extensive healthcare industry knowledge with a results-oriented, practical approach to transactions. As a zealous advocate and skilled negotiator, Erik works with clients daily to identify and develop creative solutions to issues and disputes efficiently and competently. By incorporating a proactive, client-centric approach to his practice, Erik carefully navigates clients through each stage of a business transaction, including preparing initial term sheets, drafting purchase agreements, revising ancillary transaction documents, negotiating deal points, reviewing diligence materials, and managing closings. Healthcare practices and other businesses also seek Erik's guidance on general corporate matters, including employment and daily operational issues, revising patient forms, legal compliance and revenue growth.
