

Primary Applicant:	Age:	Grade	School	Additional Applicants	State/ Country	Project name and details:
Nahla Williams	13	7th	Gadsden Middle School	N/A	AL	Great to be Grateful: This teenager plans to create care packages for persons who are often undervalued in her community - senior citizens. She hopes to put smiles on their faces by letting them know they are cared about.
Ruth Cersovsky	12	6th	Helen Tyson Middle School	Juliette Moquett, 11	AR	Creative Hospital Helpers: Children at a local hospital will be receiving personal craft kits. 500 kits are being designed by children for children for distribution by hospital staff. This act of kindness will go a long way in helping children feel less stressed and anxious while undergoing treatment.
Isabella Berg	12	7th	Helen Tyson Middle School	Maddie Mays, 13 Hollin Cordell, 12	AR	Calm &amp; Caring for the CSC: These kids will provide stuffed animals and fidget toys to help other children feel calm and safe in their classrooms when they get too overwhelmed. They hope to expand the project to create custom stuffed animals modeled after a therapy dog to provide kids comfort in therapy, medical exams and even court.
Aiko Ahir	12	6th	Washington Irving Middle school	Lola Marimon/ 12 August Lichstein/ 11 Isabella Mejia/ 11 Kate van der Hidde/ 11 Maria Gallucci / 12	CA	Crafting New Friendships: A group of middle school students want to create a kind school culture where students think before they speak and make more connections with each other. They plan to set up a space where students can meet each month to talk about differences, learn from each other and create friendship bracelets to give to those they do not know.

Caroline Cristilli	14	9th	Mission Hills High School	Caitlin Wilburs 14, Katelyn Kennerly 15, Chloe Parker 14, Chloe Rejda 14, Grace Castello 14, McKayla Miller 14, Ashley Hoehn 14, Adriana Svoda 14.	CA	Kindness Rocks: A group of high school young woman want "to start a chain of kindness that begins with girls in local title 1 schools, continues to the seniors in our community, and keeps going even further to brighten the day of anyone who finds our kindness rocks." These high school students will be meeting with younger girls to paint kindness rocks with them. They will then go to a local residence for senior citizens and walk around with the seniors to place the Kindness Rocks where everyone in the community can see.
Vivian Cotroneo	10	5th	Evergreen Elementary School	Tempy Walker (10) Reagan McBride (10) Elizabeth Hickman (10) Eva Katzenberger (10) Gianna Garcia (10) Skylar Paschal (11) Travis Laing (10) Xavier Gordon (10)	CA	EES Super Sweets for Staff: This group of 10 and 11 year olds is eager to show their appreciation to the teachers at their school. They will purchase cake pops, attach a kind note, and deliver them personally to every teacher.
Amrutha Chunduru	14	8th	Fallon Middle School	N/A	CA	Courage in Action, Kindness in Heart: This 8th grade lives in a part of California that has been ravaged by wild fires. She knows how hard the fire fighters work and she will use her grant funds to make care packages and thank you cards for firefighters in their community, to thank them for their hard work and support.
Jadyn Kun	17	12th	Stafford High School	Abigail Prentiss 17, Alaina Guay 16, Alison Panciera 17, Anthony Coporale 16, Colin Viger 15, Kara Hoefle 17, Keira Sullivan 15, Layla Gustin 18, Lillian Bushior 16, Miles Sierra 15, Rylee Conceicao 17, and many more!	CT	The Kindness Chronicles: A group of High School students will be purchasing books about kindness for a local elementary school. The High School students will then go to the elementary school to read the stories to the students. While there, the high school students and the elementary school students will together color "Kindness Bookmarks" that the elementary school students will get to keep.

Ellie Allen	14	9th	Doulos Discovery School	Beckham Allen, Bria Allen, Joshua Adams, Alison Moronta, Nicole Adams, Dorian Moronta	Dominican Republic	The KKG (Kids Kindness Group): Children in the Dominican Republic will spread kindness to the elderly, construction workers, and other children, offering them a small snack and giving them notes with words of encouragement.
Ayel Morgenstern	13	8th	North Broward Preparatory School	N/A	FL	Mirror of Positivity: The students will inspire their peers to be future leaders by helping them find their inner beauty. They will provide shatter-proof mirrors as well as suggestions of positive affirmations they can say to themselves and others, creating a community of care and empathy.
Henry Barbas	14	8th	Home School	Jack Barbas age 17	GA	Community Honey and More!: Brothers Henry and Jack will use their grant funds to set up two new Beehives at their community garden. They will harvest and package the honey and give it away for free to people in their community.
Ruth Mintah	17	11th	Sekyedumas e Senior High School	N/A	Ghana	Sewing For Others: Ruth has a dream of being a fashion designer and loves sewing items for others. Seeing a need in her local community, this recipient will be sewing unique, custom clothes for kids in need.
Payton Erickson	14	8th	Weiser Middle School	Allison Youngberg (13)	ID	Kindness Ties Us Together: Students at Weiser Middle School will meet during their school club hour to make a variety of bracelets and bookmarks with kind messages to give to fellow peers, younger elementary students in their district, and to residents at local long term care facilities.

Prudence Peng	13	8th	Sycamore School	Alessandro Salerno, 15 Leo Salerno, 14 Julia Herstein, 14 Ellie Eaton, 14 Brooklynn Reymer, 11 Charlotte Pryor, 12 Savannah Reymer, 13 Jackson Reymer, 10	IN	Growing Kindness Starts with Music and Art: A group of students will be working with younger children to spread kindness to the elderly through music and art. Through a series of workshops, they will teach children about musical instruments and help them create art to be used as gifts for the elderly in nursing homes. A concert will be held at a local nursing home where the children will perform and hand out their personalized gift to the residents.
Shivam Vilas Chaudhari	17	11th	Dehere Ashram School, Jawhar, Dist. Palghar, Maharashtra, India	N/A	India	From Darkness to Light: Shivam lives in a town in India that experiences frequent power outages. He will use his grant to purchase and deliver solar lamps to families with school age children so that even when the power goes out, they still have light to be able to complete school work.
Kalynn Patton	12	7th	Donnie Bickham Middle School	Hunter Patton - 16 Kaylee Picket-16 Lily Gordon-16 Anthony Pace- 15 Madelynn Jones- 13 Kinsley Picket-14 Kinsley Hall-13 Walker Jones-10	LA	Helping Kids in Crisis: A group of students will be spreading kindness to others by writing notes of encouragement and support and preparing snack packs for other children who have been removed from their home due to a crisis situation.
Cole Bernstein	8	3rd	Neighborhood School, Boston	My brother Sam Bernstein. He is 11 and he's in 6th grade at my school.	MA	Brownies &amp; Backpacks: Two brothers will join their mother at the hospital where she works to personally deliver backpacks filled with school supplies to kids who need them. They plan to speak with the social workers to identify patients who need them and will personally deliver them. These brothers are motivated and have already started raising money towards this cause by baking and selling brownies in their neighborhood!

Natalie Chanthavong	17	12th	Meade Senior High School	Linda Gessesse - 17 Aleena Malik - 17 Will Andriane - 17 Addison Cliff - 17 Maryam Mustafa - 17 Additional Students from SSL Team - 15-18	MD	Spreading Smiles: Students from Meade High School will spread kindness and smiles by providing dental hygiene packets to children and teens who live in impoverished areas in Annapolis and Severn, Maryland.
Alexander Anaya	9	4th	Charles Carroll Barrister Elementary	Ka'Mari Adams- 9 Kalvin Kasule-10 Tiffany Nguyen-9 R'yan Ware- 9	MD	Calming Corner: Elementary school students will spread kindness by creating a safe place in their school where students and teachers who are sad or upset can find peace and support.
Isabel Lopez-Espinal	8	2nd	Holabird Academy	Genesis Martinez-Mendoza (7) Nathan Saldana -Cedillo (7) Josue Santos-Rodriguez (7) Rico Galloway (7) Oliver Villeda-Franco (7) Nalani Housen-Jenkinsel (7) Ian Sanchez (7) Aiden Negron (6) Baeleigh Hill (6) Elena Hernandez (6) Aurora Ochoa (6) Taylor Thomas (6) Bryan Melgar (6) Mateo Zuniga-Ariola (7) Charlotte Gil-Duran (6) Kimberly Zapet-Lopez (6) Gabriella Benitez-Alvarez (6) Wilmer Garza-Romero (6)	MD	Holabird Kindness Bracelet Project: A large group of students want to make sure that everyone in the school - students and staff - feel included and supported. They will spread kindness by making and distributing bracelets to everyone with words of kindness, encouragement and affirmation.
Clara Schmitt	14	8th	Wiley H. Bates Middle School, Annapolis, MD	Emmett Schmitt-11 years old	MD	Radiate Love: Two siblings, who have been accompanying their mom to radiation treatments, witnessed a large number of homeless people near the hospital. They will be spreading kindness to these individuals by giving them a comfort bag with a blanket and other necessities, as well as a personalized note.

Atman Patel	13	8th	Francis Scott Key Elementary/ Middle School Baltimore Polytechnic Institute, Folly Quarter MS, Hamilton EMS	Landon Tsang, Somesh Ambarkar, Julian Brown, 13, Aiden Tsang, 15, Ryan Kashnow 13,	MD	Lighting Up Literacy: Students from numerous schools in Baltimore City will be spreading kindness by creating custom story books for children who are struggling with reading. These books will include the child as the super hero, along with their family and friends. The students hope to help the recipients see reading as fun and exciting!
Juliana Langlois	17	11th	Our Lady of Good Counsel High School (Olney, MD)	N/A	MD	Eat Your Feelings: Kindness will be spread, one cookie at a time. This teenager will bake chocolate chip cookies and take them to the local Ronald McDonald House where she hopes to bring smiles to the families of children being cared for at Children's National Medical Center.
Sarena Reddy	17	12th	Crofton High School	Sarah Byers - 17	MD	Harmonies &amp; Handicrafts: Two high school students will organize groups of their peers to visit local nursing homes throughout the school year to spend time with the residents, play music for them, and do activities with them. Any high school students from Anne Arundel County Public Schools will be able to sign up. The goal is to spread joy and the healing properties of music to the community, and bring together people of all ages.

Claire Pierpoint	12	7th	Magothy River Middle School	Caroline Van Arsdall, 12 Jeanie Defosse, 12 Abigail Fairchild, 12 Olivia Milaster, 12 Kai Heim, 12 Kara Ascencio-Evia, 13 Noel Zaleski, 12 Eliana Schrank, 12 Leah Wible, 13 Alessandra Alvarado, 13 Claire Manicchia, 12	MD	A Girl Scout Cadette Troop will be cooking and serving dinner to homeless community members who visit their church's winter relief program.
Mason Willoughby	10	5th	Crofton Woods Elementary School	N/A	MD	Woody's Would You Like to Play Box: Mason will be creating boxes of activities for children in grades 3-5 at his elementary school (where the mascot is Woody Woodchuck) to use during recess. He will specifically be including a note telling students to look for other kids who may not have anyone to play to join them. He also suggested, "The Teachers could meet students from the other classes and The Principal could use the box to get to know more students too, because who doesn't love a fun game of UNO?"
Madeline Marlow	7	2nd	Plum Point Elementary	N/A	MD	Cookies for Community Helpers. To thank people who help in her community for all that they Madeline will be making cookies and distributing them to firefighters, trash collectors, bus drivers, military professionals, police, and many others. Her goal is to spread kindness to more than 240 individuals in her community.
Emma Green	11	6th	Francis Scott Key E/M School	Aubrey Carter 11, Carter Jefferson 11	MD	Painting with a Purpose: To say thank you for all of their support and encouragement, three students at a maryland elementary/middle school will be painting/decorating two parking spaces at their school - one for the principal, and one for the teacher of the month.

Addie Stanski	14	8th	Central Middle School	N/A	MD	Positive Lucky Ducks: This student will raise awareness of anxiety by providing green duck keychains with positive messages written on them. Each teacher will receive ducks to pass out to students who are struggling with anxiety.
Tyson Clough	17	12th	homeschool	Sophie Clough, 15	MD	Brains are Weird!: A group of kids with learning differences will purchase and read books about neurodivergent children to kids in Baltimore City schools. They will use the stories to lead dicussions on how to support their neurodivergent classmates.
Cameron Chiang	11	6th	Central Middle	Frankie Turner age 11 Anya Zambia age 12	MD	Custodian Appreciation Pins. A group of middle school students will be writing notes and making pins for the custodians in school to thank them for always being there.
Kiera Burton	14	9th	Troy High School	Hudson Bauer, 15 Zoey Bernall, 15 Lily Clark, 14 Ainsley Huitron, 15 Zoey Leggett, 16	MT	Bathe with Kindness: These high school students want to show their peers that they care and that kindness can be spread in many different ways. They plan to host an assembly where they will teach their peers about the importance of good hygiene and will provide a kit with basic hygiene supplies to every student. Their goal is to "help guide the student body through a crucial part of growing up."
Caleb Davis	6	1st	Baton Elementary	N/A	NC	You Can Always Celebrate Something: This 1st grader will be putting together birthday kits for children who visit local soup kitchens and food pantries so that they have everything they need to celebrate their birthday.
Kaitlyn Marquis	14	9th	Bishop Guertin High School	N/A	NH	Healing Hands: This teenager will be putting together 24 care packages for nurses, who spend hours each day caring for others and who are often the forgotten, unsung heros.

Susana Iffu	15	11th	Great Divine Favour School	N/A	Nigeria	Warm Hearts, Bright Smiles: Susana will reach out to students at their school who feel left out, stressed, or sad. She will create a kindness corner where students can write kind notes to each other, share positive messages, and leave small hand made gifts, such as friendship bracelets. It will be a space where everyone can feel appreciated and supported.
Lucinda Gerowitz	12	8th	The Clinton School: MS260	N/A	NY	Cookie Care: Sweetening Nurse Appreciation: A young girl will provide kindness to those in health care who do not always get the thanks and gratitude that they deserve - nurses, receptionists, and security guards. A bag filled with notes of appreciation and cookies will be handed out during her next visit at a local medical facility.
Sidney Kilbaner	13	8th	The Clinton School: MS260	N/A	NY	The Bok Choy Project (Bok Choy means 100 luck): Food distribution sites in Chinatown often run out of food before reaching the last person in line. This teen will spread kindness by distributing bags filled with baby bok choy, rice, and garlic to those at the end of the line who didn't receive anything else.
Marco Vitti	11	6th	Louis M Klein Middle School, Harrison, NY	Enzo Morales - age 11, Enzo Jarrett - age 11 , Oliver Getaz - age 11	NY	Holiday Card Cheer: Bright Smiles and Warm Wishes: A group of boyscouts will go to a local nursing home after Thanksgiving to help any residents who have difficulty with fine motor skills write holiday cards to family members and friends. They will create these cards and ask the residents what message they would like to write inside. The students will also take a polaroid picture of resident smiling and place it in the card as an added gift.

Ethan Levenstien	13	8th	West Hollow Middle School	Jackson Levenstien, 11-years-old	NY	Little 'Lev' Library: Two brothers will build a "Little Free Library" to allow members of the community to donate and pick up books to read, and share their joy of reading. They named their project this because, "Levenstien is our last name but "Lev" in Hebrew means 'heart.'"
Henri de Ryckel	11	6th	KIS International School Bangkok	N/A	Thailand	Gifts for Guards: A student will honor and thank the guards who protect her school in Thailand by preparing thank you gift bags for each.
Arieal Conner	17	12th	Crosstown High	Madison Boyce, Kori Jackson, Ashton Jackson, Emily Medellin, Kimberly Garza, Taylan leake, Valeria Perez, London McDonalds, Corrian Smith, Caden Jones, Steven Bean, Martavious Ridley, Aiden Johnson	TN	The Frosted Haven: A group of students are spreading kindness by creating a "safe place" in their school where students can engage in open communication with others and reduce stress and anxiety.
Ainsley Robbins	17	11th	Edward Marcus High School	N/A	TX	RoRose's Smile Sacks: Ainsley will be coloring 500 plain white paper lunch bags for children at the "Kids Food Basket" so that when they receive donated lunches they receive them in a cheerful bag that includes kind, encouraging messages.
Isabel Dreyer	17	12th	Menchville	Matthew Dujardin - 17 Ryann Norton- 17 Dylan Taylor - 16 Aidan Mingee - 16 Daniel Sosa - 17 Gabriel Cubas - 16	VA	Robo Refresh: Competition Kindness: A young woman who competes in Robotics challenges noticed that the women's bathrooms at these competitions are often lacking feminine hygiene products. She plans to change this with our grant and will provide feminine hygiene products to fellow female students competing in local Robotics challenges.

Lucy Talbert	9	4th	Union Elementary School	Wyatt Eldridge, Elliot Keegan, Nola Kantlehner, Ellory O'Gwinn, Liam Hartmann, Logan Fuller, Saoirse McGlynn, Valerie Weeks, Irie Mille, Ember Simmons, Lydia Weeks, Lucy Talbert,	VT	Kindness Connections: A large group of 2nd, 3rd, and 4th graders are planning a series of events to spread kindness to residents at local nursing homes. They plan to create custom puzzles with them, do a skit about kindness, and paint flower pots for the residents to keep.
Jazmine Wendt	15	9th	Necedah School District	Brooke Schoening-16 Brynelle Lawrence-15 Nataley Schoening-16	WI	The Gift of Nature: A group of children will be planting and maintaining a butterfly garden at an assisted living center. This simple act of kindness will bring smiles to elderly persons who are living in the facility.
Kelsey Lawson	9	4th	Conner Street Elementary	N/A	WV	Snuggly Kindness: 9 year old Kelsey has been given funds to make "no sew" blankets for the children at a local homeless shelter where she volunteers. Additionally, her family has agreed to fund the purchase of a children's book to be given with each blanket.
Katelyn Maloney	14	8th	Triadelphia Middle School	N/A	WV	Once a Raider, Always a Raider: Katelyn knows that being a new student in a school can be very difficult. New students don't know where to go or who they can sit with at lunch. So she will be providing each new student at Triadelphia Middle School with a welcome bag to help the student learn about the school but also make them feel comfortable and welcomed.